

In the issue of Oct. 10, 1918 the name is changed to "The Aylmer Express, with which is incorporated the East Elgin Tribune."

Volume - 1919.

Volume - 1920 March 18, 1920 has a special souvenir edition on "Success stories of Aylmer men and their service to the community."

Volume - 1921.

Files for this project were lent through the courtesy of Mr. Arthur M. Hueston, publisher of the Aylmer Express (1972). Filming has been under-written by the Elgin County Library System, St. Thomas, Ontario. Collating by Mr. Michael Bourne, under the direction of Edward Phelps, Special Collections Librarian, The D. B. Weldon Library, The University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario. Filming by London Microfilming Limited, 101 Wellington Street, London, Ontario, December 1972.