LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on the advice I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me. I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, and I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me good."

AN OLD RESIDENT DEAD. Many citizens of London will regret to hear of the recent death in England of John Morman, who was for over 50 years a resident of this country. Coming to Canada over half a century ago, he settled in West Niagara, afterward removing to London, where he resided in the eastern part of the city until about five years ago, when he left for England to reside with his nephew at Woolton, Somerset, where he purchased an estate, and where his death occurred. One of his estates, which includes mortgages upon county property and store property on Dundas street, will devolve upon a brother in Grand Rapids, Mich., and nephews and nieces in England.

The case was brought up in Barrie police court and was adjourned for a week to allow Ireland to bring some witnesses from London.

SAVED BY THE FENDER. Toronto, May 29.—Sunday afternoon little Alma Neal, daughter of Mr. John A. Neal, 86 Logan avenue, had a marvelous escape. The child was crossing Queen at Logan avenue, and did not notice approaching street cars from both directions. She escaped the west-bound car and was picked up by the fender of the east-bound car. She was taken from her perilous position by the motorman, and ran home apparently none the worse for her adventure.

IT'S THE OLD STORY. A Well-Known Toronto Gentleman Tried All the Catarrh Cures Heard of for Years—At Last Japanese Catarrh Cure Removed Every Symptom of the Disease—It Cures Permanently.

Mr. W. B. Williams, 254 Church street, Toronto, writes: "I have used Japanese Catarrh Cure for catarrh, and believe it to be an article of superior merit. It has given me immediate relief, and cured me completely of acute catarrh, which had troubled me for years. I believe I have tried every other remedy known for catarrh, but in each instance my catarrh returned. It is now some time since being cured with Japanese Catarrh Cure, and I have since been free from every symptom of the disease. I can highly recommend this remedy. Price, 60 cents; Anderson & Neilsen, druggists."

Agnes Knox-Black. The audience which gathered in the Auditorium last night to hear the eulogatory recital of Mrs. Agnes Knox-Black enjoyed to the full the excellent programme. This talented lady is too well and favorably known in this city to require extended comment on her artistic methods. Mrs. Black was ably assisted by Mr. Hewlett in piano solos and by the McDonald Male Quartet. The programme was: "Marching On," "Old Kentucky Home," quartet; "On Work" (Carlyle), "The Other Side of the Moon," "The Solitary Reaper" (Wordsworth), Mrs. Agnes Knox-Black; "Annie Laurie," quartet; "The White Man's Burden," "L'Envoi" (from "The Seven Seas"), "The Story of Uriah," and "The Reconciliation" (Kipling).
