MANSFIELD IN "BEAUCAIRE." Richard Mansfield will bring to the New Grand on Saturday, June 28, his new play, "Beaucaire," an original comedy in five acts, by Booth Tarkington and Evelyn Greenleaf Sutherland. The title character is one of charm, vital with chivalry, scintillating with wit. Mansfield's characterization is said to be the finest portraiture and the most painstaking piece of comedy and romance he has presented in years. The cast of "Beaucaire" is a long one. There are up-wards of 25 speaking parts, and almost as many more people of experi-ence to complete the picture of the smart set of Bath, when Beaucaire played his little comedy with Lady Mary and the Duke of Wintersett.
