The surplus increased $6,343,000, which wiped out the deficit established last Saturday and observed a prophile statement of the and showed a surplus reserve of about $29,000,000. The excellence of the statement was due to the heavy decrease in loans, which amounted to more than $27,000,000. There was a loss in cash of about $1,900,000. ## Important Announcement.

A few years ago an edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica was to be found only in the homes of the wealthy-for this greatest of all reference books sold at a price so high that only the rich could afford to own it. But American enterprise has now placed an American corrected and revised edition within the reach of those of the most moderate means. ## New Edition

At a Great Reduction in Price.

This new American edition is printed from new electrotype plates, and in clearness of type, beauty of printing, illustrations and binding it is unsurpassed. The type was set by hand in the United States, which allowed the American publishers to correct the errors that marred the original foreign edition. A large number of new maps are introduced, and the illustrations in the text have been made especially for this edition. The original cost of the foreign edition of this king of encyclopaedias was more than one million dollars. Ten thousund dollars was paid for a single
