Erie Franchise Must Also Be Transferred, So Canadian

League Has Only Five Clubs at Present-Mr.

O'Neill Must Locate a Sixth City.

TORONTO, March 5.—The Canadian League will only be composed of six clubs this season, and one of these clubs has yet to be secured. At the schedule meeting held here today, the Toronto and Peterboro clubs decided to withdraw for this season, and the league allowed them to hold the franchise for a year without playing. The Eric territory has already been sold to the Central League, through George to the Central League, through George O'Neill, the owner, and Eric will not be represented in the league this sea-

STUBBORN STRUGGLE Winners Meet Toronto Uni versity in Finals Next

Tuesday and Friday.

TORONTO, March 5.—Berlin Union Jacks beat Collingwood, 4 to 3, in a "sudden death" O.H.A. junior game tonight. The winners will meet University of Toronto at Berlin Tuesday and here on Friday for the junior championship. The teams had previously played home-and-home games, the round ending in a score of 6 to 6.

The game tonight was a stubborn struggle from end to end, with a little to choose between the teams. Hard, close checking predominated. The teams:

BUCKINGHAM TEAM WINS LOWER OTTAWA LEAGUE

OTTAWA, March 5.—The Bucking-am team practically cinched the hampionship of the western section the Lower Ottawa Hockey Associa-on when it defeated the Royal Can-lian team at the Arena by a score of to 2 toright. They thus carry lead of three goals into the final game, which is to be played at Buckingham Monday night. They will saw off next week against the Hawkesbury team, hampions of the eastern section.
