Testing Uncle's Faith
"We'd have more prayers answered," said Bishop Ross, of Muskoka, "if we had more faith."

"Too many of us are like Willie. Willie, on a visit to his uncle's in the country, admired a fine colt."

"Uncle, give me that colt, will you?" he asked.

"Why, no, William," said his uncle. "That's a very valuable colt, and I couldn't afford to give him to you. Do you want a colt so very badly?"

"I'd rather have a colt than anything else in the world," said Willie. "Then," said his uncle, "I'll tell you what you ought to do. Since you want a colt that much, you ought to pray for one. Whenever I want a thing I always pray for it, and then it is sure to come to me."

"Is that so, uncle?" said Willie, eagerly. "Won't you please give me this colt, then, and pray for one for yourself?"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

It is sure to come to me."
