Grom the Nelson Tribune.) The past season's development work in different parts of the Slocan country has demonstrated what many old and experi-enced prospectors predicted over two years ago, that is, that the mines had not all been found after the first rush, when only the surface had been looked over. The most

the Slocan proparing himself for the ses-sion's work. Some of New Denver's needs : A work-ing jeweller, a tailor, a newedealer, a doctor. The Mountain Chief mine made its first shipment for the season on the 16th Octo-ber. This was 60 tons, valued at $3,400 gross, and representing a net profit of be-tween five and six thousand dollars with the prospective railroad facilities for ship-ment. Now, however, the ore has to be packed to Three Forks and then teamed to Kaelo. Kaslo.

The former owners of the Alpha mine have up to now received $53,500 of the purchase price, and the balance of $15,500 will be paid about November 10. This is the largest amount yet paid for any mine in the Sloran country. Development work will be vigor-orously carried on during the winter. The output now is about six tons a day. The heavy engine with passenger coach was coming as for as the New Denver siding on October 20.

Newcastle Island in the hope of discovering some trace of the lost William Martin. Proceeding to the spot where Smith was di-fore on the beach by a passing siwash, the party patrolled the shore for several miles on each side. When night came on they lighted their lanterns and proceeded inland. Hour after hour the bard of anxious searchers roamed back and forth, but in vain. No trace of the missing man rewarded their efforts. Smith, whe was by merest obance snatched from the issue of death, is still a badly battered man. Of the oircumstances of his secape he knows but little. From the time he failted on the back on Monday afterneon until Wednes-day sformoon is a blank which he has not yet sufficiently recovered to fill.
