The United States embassy, while non committal, hopes that to-day's confer ence will clear the muddle and bring about a signing of the joint note in Pekin within a few days.

about a signing of the joint note in Pekin within a few days. On the other hand, the British foreign office is not quite so hopeful. Official there profess to be rather at sea as to whether the conditions are to be irrevocable to their being irrevocable. British officials admit that they gave in under pro-test and with a distinct reservation that although the demands are irrevocable this in no way necessitates an enforce-ment of demands by European troops To such a course Great Britain canno-and will not agree. Consequently compliance with the "in revocable" clause will be somewhat of a farce on the part of Great Britain and this feature of the case become more interesting when taken in con-function with the statement authoritat ively here that Great Britain and th United States are in the same boat to the joint note negotiations. Count von Waldersee says he know that there is a considerable force of Chinese under Gen. Ma in the norther other south of Tshang Tsang, but du ing the severe winter that has now say in he does not expect that the Chines will be aggressive. On the other han wherever the allies leave a district for any length of time, bands of robbers an Boxers will congregate. For this reaso the Field Marshal advises the co-oper districts with strong patrols. It is now understood that a meetin of the foreign envoys will be held to morrow.
