The Shawmut From Manila

Boston Steamship Company's Big Liner Arrives Here Yesterday Afternoon.

War Correspondent and an American Nurse Return From Jepan.

The Botton Steamabl Company and that the Steamable of the Steamab the strikers. An attempt will be strikers and attempt will to unload the boat this morning the work in the great government hospital at Hiroshima. She expresses wonder at the stoical patience and endurance of the Japanese wounded. They submit with calmness to surgical operations, and betray little of the emotion common to white patients.

The Dominion to white patients, Toward the end of Miss Gladwin's stay at Hiroshima, the wounded began to arrive from the great battlefields of the Liabotung peninsula and the Yalu engagements, and some of the character, especially those under treatment for consistent wounds and injuries due to one steel wounds and injuries due to the character, especially those under treatment for consistent wounds and injuries due to make the wounds were surgeons and nurses were month and a remarkable percent of Riblung mountain fort was demonstant of a terrible character, especially those under treatment for consistent wounds and injuries due to consider the falls to Death.

Misplaced Fire Nozzles Result in Serious Loss at Ymir City.

Montreal, Noy, 1.—After purchasing a papaness found in their ways of treat and an excellent impression and the made an excellent impression and the Japanese found in their ways of treat—and an another damaged. One gun on the tain was destroyed. One fitted entiment rewards were progressing.

Wisplaced Fire Nozzles Result in Serious Loss at Ymir City.

Montreal, Noy, 1.—After purchasing a proprietor to place carridges of large sound in their ways of treat—and another damaged. One gun on the tain was destroyed. One ging the proprietor to place carridges of large sound in their ways of treat—and another damaged. One gun on the tain was destroyed. One ging the proprietor to place carridges of large sound in the forts was dismantide another damaged. One gun on the tain was destroyed. One ging the proprietor to place carridges of large sound in the forts was dismantide and another damaged. One gun on the tain was destroyed. One ging the proprietor to place carridges of large sound in the forts was down the proprietor to place carridges of large sound in the forts was down the proprietor to place carridges of large the proprietor to p s ashamed to borvow ideas or imitate a good thing. They are the greatest and cleverest imitators in the world. The American staff of nurses was treated all the time they were at Hiroshima and in Japan with the utmost kindness and consideration. The Japanese seem of the consideration of the properties keenly the voluntary by the consideration of the properties keenly the voluntary by the seem on a United States transport that was to call at yokohama on its way from Manila to San Francisco. The Japanese nurses have now taken up the whole work of nursing their wounded, and Miss Gladwin says the wounded could not possibly be inbetter hands than those of the skilful and kindly little Japanese women.

Several business men returned on the Shawmut after more or iess lengthy periods in various parts of the Orient. In reply to questions, they all said that the Associated Press news told all and more than they knew about the war, and commented in flattering terms on the splendid service of war news they observed in the Victoria Daily Colonist. The Shawmut had some freight to dischange here and did not get away on her voyage to the Sound until last evening.

The other prominent passengers who came over by the Shawmut were:

By Manton, Craig street, this morning, and elegated from temple to deal from temple to the was almost instantaneous instantaneou

The other prominent passengers who came over by the Shawmut were:

B. Cert, a Shanghai business man, who has come over to interview the United States government with a view to establishing a commercial museum in Shanghai for the purpose of improving the import business from the United States.

F. J. Morse, who has been buying silks and other Oriental products in China and Japan and is returning to his home in the United States.

Commander Squires, a retired British naval officer, who has been in the service of the Japanese government for a number of years. He will rejoin his family at Sumas.

Consul W. E. Lyons, of Kobe, who is returning to his home in the United States after a severe illness, which incapacitated him from attending to business.

GOOD SEALING YEAR.

Was only twelve years of age.

KOOTENAY NOMINATIONS.

Nelson, B. C., Nov. 1.—The return-duction of age.

Nelson, B. C., Nov. 1.—The return-duction of age.

Nelson, B. C., Nov. 1.—The return-duction of the new Kootenay riding, the court house today the following nom-state of the court house today all along the line. The guite today all along the line. The full the court house today all along the line. The full the court house today all along the line. The full trenches of the court house today all along the line trenches of the co

The finance is the property of the property of

The Dominion

Concentrated Fire of Japanese Guns Blows Holes in Russian Works Which Are Afterwards Captured By General Assault. September 1997 September 1998 Gonzal Assault. September 1998 September and easterly forts on October 25th, the infantry moving forward with desperate rushes where the artillery had prepared the way, while the pioneers and sappers were runing mines against the Russian forts. The reports record a series of desperate encounters at close range and tell a dramatic story.

One Step Nearer.

One Step Nearer.

One Step Nearer.

On October 27th the bombardment was continued and much execution was additional details reaching Chefoo concerning the last general assault on Port Arthur, which began on October 24 and developed into the third attempt of the Japanese to secure a commanding position, say that on the night of October 28 the Japanese, who, on October 26, had daring aly entremched themselves on the slope of Riblung mountain, forced themselves further and drove the Russians retreated from their trenches to the other side of the mountain.

On Step Nearer.

On October 27th the bombardment was continued and much execution was of the bombardment of the Japanese, who, on October 24 and developed into the third attempt of the Japanese, who, on October 28 the Japanese, who, on October 28 saw many things well worth borrowing saw many things well worth borrowing in the methods of those clever people. On the other hand the American nurses made an excellent impression and the Japanese found in their ways of treatment much to imitate.

Montreal, Nov. 1.—After purchasing a propertor to place cartridges of large directed against the trenches on Sungthin, have none of that false pride that is ashamed to borrow ideas or imitate agood thing. They are the greatest and cleverest imitators in the world. The American staff of nurses was treated all the time they were at Hiroshimal the ploughed from temple to and cleverest imitators in the world. The American staff of nurses was treated all the time they were at Hiroshimal point of our right wing and against the trenches on Sungshu mountain. All were heavily damed all the time they were at Hiroshimal Death was almost instantaneous.

A FATAL FALL.

Montreal, Nov. 1.—After purchasing a northern fort of East Keekewan mountain was destroyed.

"From 2 p. m. other siege guns were directed against the trenches on Sungstite trenches on Sungstite trenches on the south side of Pohsian mountain, and sungering mountain, cast Keekewan mountain was destroyed.

"A large mine exploded on the slope of Rihlung mountain without fatalism. That night to prevent the Russians repairs, we shelled the forts of Rihlung mountain, cast Keekewan mountain was destroyed.

"A large mine exploded on the slope of Rihlung mountain, and against the points where our assauts were progressing.

"A large mine exploded on the slope of Rihlung mountain without fatalism the trenches on Sungstite trenches on Sungs

Charge Against Vancouver Police

Detective Alleged to Have Warne Gamblers of an Impending Raid.

Machinist's Suicide—Consumptive Boy on Trial for His Life.

Vancouver, Nov. 1.—There is another sensational Police-court investigation going on in Vancouver. Acting Sergeant D. D. MacIntosh charges Detective Preston, secretary of the police commissioners, with tipping off a gambling house raid last week. The officer is accused, while accompanying the other officers on the raid, of slipping away from them and notifying the gamblers.

At 9 o'clock this morning Mrs. Watson, living at 676 Cordova street, saw a man go into the bushes near her house and shortly after heard a revolver shot. The police were notified, and on going into the bushes, they found the dead body of E. E. Johnson, a machinist, who had committed suicide. The suicide was the result of hard drinking.

The Kay murder case is still on. The sick boy accused of the crime looks London is quoting war risks at of per cent. A few days ago they significantly allowed they so there can be few quotations of three-eighths, but a stiffness is apparent. Marine in men explain the rise is due to the like attitude Great Britain has a way from them and notifying the gamblers.

At 9 o'clock this morning Mrs. Watson, living at 676 Cordova street, saw a man go into the bushes near her house and shortly after heard a revolver shot. The police were notified, and on going into the bushes, they found the dead body of E. E. Johnson, a machinist, who had committed suicide. The suicide was the result of hard drinking.

The Kay murder case is still on. The sick boy accused of the crime looks

Property. From Our Own Correspondent,

Battleships of Baltic Squadron Peppered Consorts Over Trawlers' Heads

Aurora Hit Several Times and Some of Crew Wounded Une Faially.

the observation stations on every hillthe observation stations on every hillthe dependence of the observation stations on every hillthe dependence of the dependence of

Last night there was the heaviest bombardment of the week from the Russian batteries, and the Russians are seemingly apprehensive of a crucial surprise. This bombardment was accompanied by a continuous rifle fire, while the infantry advanced by means of quick entrenching at intervals of a few hundred feet under cover of darkness. The outcome of this activity is a tense vigilance along the entire extended front.

The fort last night. A portion of the fort last night. A nine was directed against the file of the fort last night. A mine was directed against the fort lything of the eastern point of the fort lything of the fort ly

VOL. XLVII., NO. 8

Progress At Rossland

In Spite of Water Shortage th Output Continues to Increase.

Maintained Weekly Average. Over Two Hundred and Ninet Thousand Tons Shipped for Year.

Over 8ix Thousand Tons Is th

Rossland, B. C., Nov. 5.—The parwees in local mining circles has witnessed the enward march of stead progress, except for the continued sh at the Le Roi No. 2 and White Bear, From an industrial viewpoint it is annoying to see this deady week after week, but it is, of course, impossible that the dry spell can be continued much longer. Once the rains come, which may happen any day, all will be well It is gratifying, in spite of all this delay, to see the output maintained so steadily.

It is gratifying, in spite of all this de-lay, to see the output maintained so steadily.

For several weeks it has been consid-erably over the 6,000 ton mark, and may be expected to amount to 1,000 tons daily before the close of the year.

The tonnage of ore shipped from and crushed at the Rossland mines for the week ending November 5, is as follows: Le Roi No. 2, 700; Centre Star, 780; Centre Star (milled), 540; War Eagle, 1,140; War Eagle (milled), 210; Le Roi No. 2, 190; Jumbo, 540; White Bear (milled), 60; Rossland View, 20. Total for the week, 6,180 tons; for year, 290,-855 tens.

HELD UP BY THE BELLBOY.

Arnold Gundelfinder and Wife Lose Jewelry Worth $2,500. San Francisco, Nov. 5 .- Arnold Gun San Francisco, Nov. 5.—Arnold Gundelfinder, a retired merchant, and his wife were held up in their apartments at the Hotel Rochester tonight and robbed of jewelry valued at $2.500. According to Mr. Gundelfinder's story, he and his wife were dressing in their rooms. He heard a knock on the door and, answering it, he discovered a former bellboy of the hotel, James Gates, at the door. Gates said he had been sent up to look at the plumbing. He at the door. Gates said he had been sent up to look at the plumbing. He was told that Mrs. Gundelfinger was dressing, and that he could not come in. He insisted and was allowed to enter the room. He then drew a revolver and demanded that Mrs. Gundelfinder surrender her jewels. Mrs. Gundelfinder said they were in another room, and at the pistol's noint Gates compelled. at the pistol's point Gates compelle Guidelfinder and his wife to go int the other room. Mrs. Gundelfinder the handed over a bag containing the jewels Gates made his escape.

PEARSON BUYS STANDARD. London, Nov. 5.—C. A. Pearson, proprietor of the Daily Express of this city and other newspapers and the had purchased the Morning and Evening Standard. He does not contemplate alterations. terations and says he is ac self alone, the purchase be business and not a polit

STEAMERS SINK IN

PORT ARTHUR HARBOR Bombardment Destroys Vessels at Anchor and Damages

Fort and Tower.

Tokio, Nov. 5.-Advices forwarded from Port Arthur between November 2nd and November 4th say that two steamers of about 3,500 tons each anchored in the west harbor were sunk by the Japanese heavy guns November 1st steamer 3,000 tons was also sunk. A Russian recently came in and surrendered at a place near Shuisan.

Two great explosions were heard and on the night of November 3rd the Japanese occupied a fort since called Ichimo owing to the fact that it had been bravely captured by that General. Three field guns, two machine guns, three torpedoes and many other trophies were captured. The Russian left forty dead.

A vicorous bembardment with nevel A vigorous bombardment with naval guns was delivered at noon November 3rd against the east harbor dockyard and other points, as a result of which a fierce conflagration occurred near the east harbor. The same day fire of large galibre guns was directed against "H" fort, a height of 200 yards and with a northwest tower. Heavy damage was caused by the bombardment on both fort and tower. A Russian field gun placed at a point east of Kleekwan mountain was struck by a Japanese shell and destroyed.

AMERICANS IN BABYLONIA.

Constantinople, Nev. 5.—The American legation is now seeking permission from the Turkish government for the resumption of the excavations conducted by Dr. E. S. Banks, director of the University of Chicago expedition to Babylonia at Bismaya, Mesopotamia, which were suspended pending an investigation made in the presence of American Vice Consul Hurner at Bagdad of charges of complicity on the part of Dr. Banks in the alieged disappearance of valuable antiquities. These charges were proved to be utterly without foundation.

DISEASED CATTLE. British Expert Declares Tuberculosis Exists in Canadian Breeds.

London, Nov. 5.-A corresponden London, Nov. 5.—A correspondent, professing to have intimate knowledge, has written the Glasgow Herald denying the statement in an editorial that Great Britain protects itself against a country where cattle disease doesn't exist, and mentions a series of experiments in different parts of Canada where a strikingly large percentage of tuberculosis was found, and suggests that pure breeds might be imported for breeding purposes.

A BIG ROBBERY.

Buffalo, N. Y.. Nov. 5.—A special from Warsaw, N. Y.. says that the safe of James L. Blodgett, at Hermitage was blown open today and from $25,000 to $30,000 stolen. Blodgett has conducted a private bank for the past four years. Another despatch says Mr. Blodgett declined to state his Joss, but it is generally believed a very 37 stantial sum was taken.