Many Fine Dogs Exhibited --Some of the Prize Winners.

With the largest entry in the history of dogdom in this province, the third annual exhibition of the Vancouver Kennel club opened Wednesday morning at the drill hall. Everything points to one of the most successful shows ever held in this province. Not only is the entry list a record one, but every animal on exhibition has a pedigree of the highest order, says the News-Advertiser.

Great Camps—Civic Economy.

San Francisco, May 12.—The liquor question was again discussed today by the authorities and it was proposed that the charter of the city be amended, so that a saloon license which has here tofore been $100 a year shall be raised to $500. Before the fire there were 4, where the police board of commissioners issued an order that all private clubs cease dispensing liquor to members. Mayor Schmitz today directed that persons made homeless by the fire to be conentrated into two great camps, one in the park. This action has been made necessary for sanitary reasons. At present every vacant square is covered with tents of homeless campers. A general reduction in the city's working force within the next 20 days will be ordered. Plans are under discussion whereby the most rigid economy may be enforced in municipal affairs. About 300 city employees will lose their positions or suffer a reduction in salary.

A fence-top near his bedroom window, and it murdered sleep.

Mr. Williams suggested his willing-ness to abate the nuisance complained of, and his suggestion was a drastic one. The only way to prevent the rooster frowing, he said, was to decapitate the coving, he said, was to decapitate the limit of the sea.

The only way to prevent the rooster frowing, he said, was to decapitate the order or, perhaps, he might throw the noisy bird into the sea.

The complainant did not care what means were adopted as long as the cowing powers were removed.

It was then that Police Constable in the park that he would be glad to take charge of the rooster.
