STAYNER'S BEAR.

A Lively Hunt After Bruin—A Village Full of Cautious Precautions.
STAYNER'S BEAR, Oct. 27.—Yesterday afternoon word was brought in that a bear had been seen in a piece of woods about two miles from Stayner. Instantly a number of the village of Stayner were on their feet, and all who owned or could borrow guns, and all who owned or could borrow powder, were at the scene. Hugh Coburn, one of the village hunters, an old hunter, separated himself from the rest, and soon discovered bear tracks. He popped himself against a tree and waited, and soon saw the object of his search approaching. When Bruin had reached within about four feet of the hunter he reared himself on his hind legs to get over a fence. Coburn fired, hitting Bruin in the neck. He gave one bound, fell on the earth, tore up a mouthful of grass, and then departed to the land where all good bears go. He weighed three hundred pounds, and was bought by Mr. Pugsley of Toronto for $25. More bears are reported in the neighborhood, and prospectors have ordered extra stocks of ammunition. One of our sporting merchants having made a bet that if there was a bear there would shoot him, got leave from Coburn to give him one after he was dead, did so and claims the bet.

DISASTERS AT SEA.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Swedish bark Halra was abandoned in lat. 49 north, long. 27 west. The captain, an officer, and three men are drowned; rest of the crew saved.

HALIFAX, Oct. 27.—Schooner Sarah Leah Master, from Sydney for this port, called on the morning of Saturday, Oct. 25, and became a total wreck, she was a vessel of 4000 tons register and was built two years ago. She was owned by Peter J. Leslie of Sydney Bay. Insured for $5000 in the City office. The crew were saved.

FABER PUNTS, Oct. 27.—A storm is raging here, a cold wind blowing from the northwest. The steamship Lake Manitowish passed inward at 7 a.m. the steamship Severn outward at 7 a.m. A Swedish bark, loading lumber at Rimpunk, came ashore at 7 a.m. The bark Quaker passed outward at 8 a.m. with signals of distress.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—One of the missing boats of the wrecked steamer Konig was picked up in the Indian ocean.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—The passengers who arrived to-day from Liverpool on the steamer British Queen, had a stormy and perilous voyage. The quartermaster was lost overboard and others injured. The vessel's fires were put out by heavy sea. The boats, wheel-houses, bridge and nautical instruments were washed away.

THE FIRE RECORD.

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 27.—The Peoria sugar refinery, owned by Hamilton of Buffalo, N. Y., was burned this afternoon. Loss will exceed over half a million dollars. Estimated $250,000. Two hundred and fifty men are thrown out of employment.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 27.—The pioneer iron works were damaged by fire to-day to the amount of $50,000.

A fire broke out this morning in the cotton room of Woolley, Albany and Co.'s goods store. The employees, mostly females, got away safely. The loss will probably reach $250,000.

THE WEATHER BULLETIN.

The Meteorological Department has ordered up the storm druggist at Saugon, Kincardine, Port Dover, Collingwood, Prespa Isle, Owen Sound, Sarnia, Gooderich, Milton, Fort Hanley, Port Colborne, Port Burwell.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28, 1 a. m.—Lake region; Partly cloudy and rain, easterly winds, lower barometer, stationary or slowly retreating.

AMERICAN TELEGRAPHIC FLASHES.

Washington is to have a stock exchange. Pork-packing in Cincinnati is very dull on account of the high price of hogs. The will of Mrs. Shumaker of Pittsburg, Pa., bequeaths nearly $50,000 to charities. The annual receipts of the Boston and Albany railroad amounted to $7,876,000; expenditures $5,688,000.

It is asserted that a large contraband trade is being carried on between New York and Cuba. The Mississippi river convention at St. Louis has elected Mark H. Dunning, Minnesota, president.

New York is becoming alarmed at the scarcity of her water supply. Sickness is plentiful. Isaac Stein, claiming to be a Baptist minister from Leesville, Kan., has been arrested in New York for stealing an overcoat at a hotel.

At a meeting of the State scientific medical society in New York, Dr. Robert H. Gunn said the history of Gardfield's case was a disgrace to modern surgery. The remarkable demand for Confederate bonds continues. Birmingham, Ala., leading banking houses here have already purchased five millions at $3 to $5 per thousand.

During the last fiscal year $14,000,000 of gold was consumed by manufacturers, including $3,000,000 of United States coin. The consumption of silver amounted to over $3,000,000.

THREE YOUNG MEN FROM BOSTON RESCUED LAKE DESERAIATION.

The Grand Trunk express due here on Wednesday night from the east, did not arrive till 4 o'clock yesterday morning. The train was very crowded. Passengers lay "coiled up" on the seats and on the floor. In one of the double seats were three young men from Boston, lying all in a heap. They were somewhat worse of liquor, and now and then produced a bottle, and every time they drank they accompanied the libation with a song and a volley of Boston slang. As they approached Toronto in the early morning they thought it an occasion to celebrate with drink and song, and to the annoyance of many a weary sleeper they started up a song which fell on the night air in accents of brass. From singing they passed to drinking, and then one of them looked out of the window into the night and discovered a lake. The lake formed a top of loud and continued conversation, and finally one of the party, a young, shaggy man from Boston, addressed a scolding-look character on the opposite side of the car.

"Say, pard, what town is this—what water have we here?"

The scolding-look character assumed a grave aspect, and eyeing the boisterous trio he replied, speaking deliberately: "This is the city called Lake Destination—when folks arrive here they are generally pitched in."

"The individuals in question had nothing more to say, and if they thereafter drank tangle-leg they drank it in solemn silence."
