

ESTABLISHED 1873.
The Weekly Monitor
is published
Every Wednesday at Bridgetown.
Terms of Subscription.—$1.50 per annum, in advance; if not paid within six months, $2.00.
Communications solicited on all matters of public interest, to be accompanied with the writer's name, which will be held, if so desired, strictly confidential. No communication is returned unless accompanied by a stamped envelope.
H. S. PIPER,
Editor and Proprietor.

Weekly Monitor
Advertising Rates.
One Year.—First insertion, 50 cents; every insertion thereafter, 25 cents; one month, $1.00; two months, $1.50; three months, $2.00; six months, $3.50.
One Square, (two inches).—First insertion $1.00; each continuation, 25 cents; one month, $2.00; six months, $3.00; twelve months, $4.50.
Half Column.—First insertion, $3.50; each continuation, $1.25; one month, $6.00; six months, $9.00; twelve months, $13.00.
A Column.—First insertion, $10.00; each continuation, $3.00; one month, $18.00; six months, $27.00; twelve months, $40.00.
Large Advertisements charged extra.
The advertiser's name is printed free of charge.
The advertiser's name is printed free of charge.
The advertiser's name is printed free of charge.

Ayer's Hair Vigor
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.
It is at once agreeable and effective, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use, the hair is thickened, and baldness either cured or not always cured. It checks falling of the hair, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are decayed, and the hair falls out, or otherwise diseased hair. It imparts brilliancy and strength, and renders it pliable.
The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff, and by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.
As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair
The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither lead nor mercury, and is not soiled by water. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

THE BEST PAPER! TRY IT!
BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED
30th YEAR.
The Scientific American.
The Scientific American is a large, four-page, weekly newspaper, of the highest quality, printed in the most beautiful style, and containing the most valuable and interesting information in the arts and sciences, including the most recent advances in the arts and sciences, and the most interesting facts in agriculture, horticulture, the human mind, medicine, geology, astronomy, and all the departments of science, will be found in the Scientific American.
Terms, $3.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cents. Sold by all News Dealers. Remittances by postal order to MUNN & CO., Publishers, 37 Park Row, New York.
ADVERTISEMENTS. In this paper, the most valuable and interesting information is contained in the advertisements. Advertisements are published at a low rate, and are guaranteed to be read by a large and influential audience. Address for the Paper, or for advertising, to the Proprietor, at the office of the Scientific American, 37 Park Row, New York.

Encyclopedia Britannica.
Subscriptions will be taken at this office. Payments are made very easy and extend over a period of five or six years, enabling a person of very moderate means to acquire this valuable work.
SEND TO THIS OFFICE FOR YOUR BILLHEADS.
MUNN & CO., Publishers, 37 Park Row, New York.

Weekly Monitor

VOL. 8. BRIDGETOWN, N. S. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1881. NO. 44.

THE ANNAPOLIS ORGAN COMPANY.
MANUFACTURERS OF
Parlor and Church Organs.
For Power and Quality of Tone, Rapidity of Action, and Promptness to Respond, they are Unsurpassed.
A careful examination of the instruments will convince the public that both interior and exterior are beautifully made.
In beauty and elegance of case they far exceed any Organ manufactured in the Maritime Provinces. They are AS LOW IN PRICE as is consistent with first-class workmanship, and are
FULLY WARRANTED.
Parties Desiring a
FIRST-CLASS INSTRUMENT.
Will find it their advantage to correspond with
THE ANNAPOLIS ORGAN COMPANY,
Or visit their Warehouse, George St., Annapolis.

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN
On the Loss of MANHOOD.
We have recently published a small, but most valuable work, entitled "The Loss of Manhood," which contains the most complete and reliable information on this subject, and is the only work of the kind published in this country. It is written in a simple, and easily understood language, and is the only work of the kind published in this country. It is written in a simple, and easily understood language, and is the only work of the kind published in this country. It is written in a simple, and easily understood language, and is the only work of the kind published in this country.

DENTAL NOTICE
Dr. S. F. Whitman, Dentist,
WOULD respectfully inform his friends in Annapolis County, that he has just returned from Kings County, and will be at his office in BRIDGETOWN
for a few weeks. FRIENDS, PLEASE NOT DELAY.
Nov. 19th, 1879. a31f

For Sale, or To Let.
A SMALL PLACE CONTAINING
FOUR ACRES OF LAND,
with comfortable
HOUSE AND BARN.
B. STARRATT.
Paradise, May 10th, '80.

EDWARD H. PHINNEY.
Middleton, Annapolis County, May 1st, 1880.
Ready-Made CLOTHING!
BUFFALO ROBES, &c.
JUST RECEIVED from Montreal, a large and well assorted stock of Ready-Made Clothing & Buffalo Robes consisting of
Men's Ulsters, Youths' Ulsters, Men's Over Coats, Reifers.
All a Splendid Assortment
of
FALL SUITS
Pants and Vests. Also,
1 Doz. Very Fine Buffalo Robes.
How beautiful!
All the above will be sold very low for cash.
BEALS & DODGE,
Middleton, N. S. '78.
CUSTOMERS MOST CAREFULLY ATTENDED TO. ALL ORDERS FOR JOB WORK.

THE ANNAPOLIS ORGAN COMPANY.
MANUFACTURERS OF
Parlor and Church Organs.
For Power and Quality of Tone, Rapidity of Action, and Promptness to Respond, they are Unsurpassed.
A careful examination of the instruments will convince the public that both interior and exterior are beautifully made.
In beauty and elegance of case they far exceed any Organ manufactured in the Maritime Provinces. They are AS LOW IN PRICE as is consistent with first-class workmanship, and are
FULLY WARRANTED.
Parties Desiring a
FIRST-CLASS INSTRUMENT.
Will find it their advantage to correspond with
THE ANNAPOLIS ORGAN COMPANY,
Or visit their Warehouse, George St., Annapolis.

Poetry.
The Clouds with Silver Lining,
BY MARY COLVER.
There's never a day so sunny
But a little cloud appears;
There's never a day so happy
But a little cloud appears.
There's never a day so bright
But a little cloud appears;
There's never a day so bright
But a little cloud appears.
There's never a day so bright
But a little cloud appears;
There's never a day so bright
But a little cloud appears.

A Carpenter's Story.
It was early in the autumn of 1855 that I was employed to do a job of work at St. Mary's Asylum for the insane. It promised to be a profitable job, and as the season had been rather dull, and I had been out of employment for a month or more, I thought I might as well try it. I went to the asylum, and found it a very interesting place. I was employed to do a job of work at St. Mary's Asylum for the insane. It promised to be a profitable job, and as the season had been rather dull, and I had been out of employment for a month or more, I thought I might as well try it. I went to the asylum, and found it a very interesting place.

Deaf Sam's Duel.
THE KIND OF DEAF SAM HUSTON EMPLOYED AS A MESSENGER.
The stranger after delivering his message, and having seen it read, was in the act of turning away when Colonel Morton, drawing his attention to the paper on which he had written, "You were brave enough to give me satisfaction?"
The stranger, after glancing at the writing, took the pen and wrote underneath, "I am at your service."
Morton took up the pen and wrote, "Name your terms."
The stranger took up the pen and wrote, "Weapons—rifles; distance fifty paces; place—west bank of the Colorado, opposite Austin; time—sunset this evening. Don't fail to be here on time, and putting down the pen on his head, strode toward the window and by a deft, nervous swing was in the branches of the tree making his exit by the same means as he entered. He walked down the street leaving the people in the council room as well as those on the street astonished at his singular behavior.

Job Work.
The Monitor office is fitted out with one of the best job-presses in this province, and a large assortment of type in both plain and ornamental lines, together with every facility for doing all descriptions of first-class work. We make a specialty of the work—either plain, or in colors, and in this line we stand unrivaled. Our competitors with any office in the Province. Orders for Posters, Dodgers, Catalogues, Pamphlets, Circulars, Cards of all kinds, will receive prompt attention. We endeavor to give the most careful and credit execution of all orders to ensure satisfaction to our patrons.
Lawyers and Magistrates blanks kept constantly on hand and for sale.

Original Sketches.
Bert Kernal.
No. 1.
Bert Kernal went to Boston when about eighteen years of age. He had received a good education and was considered smart. He was certainly far from without understanding that when he first went to the city of Boston the first man called him a Blunderer and a Braggart. Bert was good looking, industrious, temperate, and honest, and in a few years he became a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford. He was a fine, handsome, manly fellow, and one of the best of his kind in the trade. Bert had one fault, if it could be called one, and that was a passion for kissing pretty girls. It was said of him that he had kissed more women than any other man in the state. But Bert was never heard to brag of his success in that line. One day he brought a letter from home, in the state of Maine, where he had just put up a dog house, and in a few years he had become a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford. He was a fine, handsome, manly fellow, and one of the best of his kind in the trade. Bert had one fault, if it could be called one, and that was a passion for kissing pretty girls. It was said of him that he had kissed more women than any other man in the state. But Bert was never heard to brag of his success in that line. One day he brought a letter from home, in the state of Maine, where he had just put up a dog house, and in a few years he had become a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford.

Job Work.
The Monitor office is fitted out with one of the best job-presses in this province, and a large assortment of type in both plain and ornamental lines, together with every facility for doing all descriptions of first-class work. We make a specialty of the work—either plain, or in colors, and in this line we stand unrivaled. Our competitors with any office in the Province. Orders for Posters, Dodgers, Catalogues, Pamphlets, Circulars, Cards of all kinds, will receive prompt attention. We endeavor to give the most careful and credit execution of all orders to ensure satisfaction to our patrons.
Lawyers and Magistrates blanks kept constantly on hand and for sale.

Job Work.
The Monitor office is fitted out with one of the best job-presses in this province, and a large assortment of type in both plain and ornamental lines, together with every facility for doing all descriptions of first-class work. We make a specialty of the work—either plain, or in colors, and in this line we stand unrivaled. Our competitors with any office in the Province. Orders for Posters, Dodgers, Catalogues, Pamphlets, Circulars, Cards of all kinds, will receive prompt attention. We endeavor to give the most careful and credit execution of all orders to ensure satisfaction to our patrons.
Lawyers and Magistrates blanks kept constantly on hand and for sale.

Deaf Sam's Duel.
THE KIND OF DEAF SAM HUSTON EMPLOYED AS A MESSENGER.
The stranger after delivering his message, and having seen it read, was in the act of turning away when Colonel Morton, drawing his attention to the paper on which he had written, "You were brave enough to give me satisfaction?"
The stranger, after glancing at the writing, took the pen and wrote underneath, "I am at your service."
Morton took up the pen and wrote, "Name your terms."
The stranger took up the pen and wrote, "Weapons—rifles; distance fifty paces; place—west bank of the Colorado, opposite Austin; time—sunset this evening. Don't fail to be here on time, and putting down the pen on his head, strode toward the window and by a deft, nervous swing was in the branches of the tree making his exit by the same means as he entered. He walked down the street leaving the people in the council room as well as those on the street astonished at his singular behavior.

Deaf Sam's Duel.
THE KIND OF DEAF SAM HUSTON EMPLOYED AS A MESSENGER.
The stranger after delivering his message, and having seen it read, was in the act of turning away when Colonel Morton, drawing his attention to the paper on which he had written, "You were brave enough to give me satisfaction?"
The stranger, after glancing at the writing, took the pen and wrote underneath, "I am at your service."
Morton took up the pen and wrote, "Name your terms."
The stranger took up the pen and wrote, "Weapons—rifles; distance fifty paces; place—west bank of the Colorado, opposite Austin; time—sunset this evening. Don't fail to be here on time, and putting down the pen on his head, strode toward the window and by a deft, nervous swing was in the branches of the tree making his exit by the same means as he entered. He walked down the street leaving the people in the council room as well as those on the street astonished at his singular behavior.

Deaf Sam's Duel.
THE KIND OF DEAF SAM HUSTON EMPLOYED AS A MESSENGER.
The stranger after delivering his message, and having seen it read, was in the act of turning away when Colonel Morton, drawing his attention to the paper on which he had written, "You were brave enough to give me satisfaction?"
The stranger, after glancing at the writing, took the pen and wrote underneath, "I am at your service."
Morton took up the pen and wrote, "Name your terms."
The stranger took up the pen and wrote, "Weapons—rifles; distance fifty paces; place—west bank of the Colorado, opposite Austin; time—sunset this evening. Don't fail to be here on time, and putting down the pen on his head, strode toward the window and by a deft, nervous swing was in the branches of the tree making his exit by the same means as he entered. He walked down the street leaving the people in the council room as well as those on the street astonished at his singular behavior.

Deaf Sam's Duel.
THE KIND OF DEAF SAM HUSTON EMPLOYED AS A MESSENGER.
The stranger after delivering his message, and having seen it read, was in the act of turning away when Colonel Morton, drawing his attention to the paper on which he had written, "You were brave enough to give me satisfaction?"
The stranger, after glancing at the writing, took the pen and wrote underneath, "I am at your service."
Morton took up the pen and wrote, "Name your terms."
The stranger took up the pen and wrote, "Weapons—rifles; distance fifty paces; place—west bank of the Colorado, opposite Austin; time—sunset this evening. Don't fail to be here on time, and putting down the pen on his head, strode toward the window and by a deft, nervous swing was in the branches of the tree making his exit by the same means as he entered. He walked down the street leaving the people in the council room as well as those on the street astonished at his singular behavior.

Deaf Sam's Duel.
THE KIND OF DEAF SAM HUSTON EMPLOYED AS A MESSENGER.
The stranger after delivering his message, and having seen it read, was in the act of turning away when Colonel Morton, drawing his attention to the paper on which he had written, "You were brave enough to give me satisfaction?"
The stranger, after glancing at the writing, took the pen and wrote underneath, "I am at your service."
Morton took up the pen and wrote, "Name your terms."
The stranger took up the pen and wrote, "Weapons—rifles; distance fifty paces; place—west bank of the Colorado, opposite Austin; time—sunset this evening. Don't fail to be here on time, and putting down the pen on his head, strode toward the window and by a deft, nervous swing was in the branches of the tree making his exit by the same means as he entered. He walked down the street leaving the people in the council room as well as those on the street astonished at his singular behavior.

Deaf Sam's Duel.
THE KIND OF DEAF SAM HUSTON EMPLOYED AS A MESSENGER.
The stranger after delivering his message, and having seen it read, was in the act of turning away when Colonel Morton, drawing his attention to the paper on which he had written, "You were brave enough to give me satisfaction?"
The stranger, after glancing at the writing, took the pen and wrote underneath, "I am at your service."
Morton took up the pen and wrote, "Name your terms."
The stranger took up the pen and wrote, "Weapons—rifles; distance fifty paces; place—west bank of the Colorado, opposite Austin; time—sunset this evening. Don't fail to be here on time, and putting down the pen on his head, strode toward the window and by a deft, nervous swing was in the branches of the tree making his exit by the same means as he entered. He walked down the street leaving the people in the council room as well as those on the street astonished at his singular behavior.

Deaf Sam's Duel.
THE KIND OF DEAF SAM HUSTON EMPLOYED AS A MESSENGER.
The stranger after delivering his message, and having seen it read, was in the act of turning away when Colonel Morton, drawing his attention to the paper on which he had written, "You were brave enough to give me satisfaction?"
The stranger, after glancing at the writing, took the pen and wrote underneath, "I am at your service."
Morton took up the pen and wrote, "Name your terms."
The stranger took up the pen and wrote, "Weapons—rifles; distance fifty paces; place—west bank of the Colorado, opposite Austin; time—sunset this evening. Don't fail to be here on time, and putting down the pen on his head, strode toward the window and by a deft, nervous swing was in the branches of the tree making his exit by the same means as he entered. He walked down the street leaving the people in the council room as well as those on the street astonished at his singular behavior.

Job Work.
The Monitor office is fitted out with one of the best job-presses in this province, and a large assortment of type in both plain and ornamental lines, together with every facility for doing all descriptions of first-class work. We make a specialty of the work—either plain, or in colors, and in this line we stand unrivaled. Our competitors with any office in the Province. Orders for Posters, Dodgers, Catalogues, Pamphlets, Circulars, Cards of all kinds, will receive prompt attention. We endeavor to give the most careful and credit execution of all orders to ensure satisfaction to our patrons.
Lawyers and Magistrates blanks kept constantly on hand and for sale.

Original Sketches.
Bert Kernal.
No. 1.
Bert Kernal went to Boston when about eighteen years of age. He had received a good education and was considered smart. He was certainly far from without understanding that when he first went to the city of Boston the first man called him a Blunderer and a Braggart. Bert was good looking, industrious, temperate, and honest, and in a few years he became a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford. He was a fine, handsome, manly fellow, and one of the best of his kind in the trade. Bert had one fault, if it could be called one, and that was a passion for kissing pretty girls. It was said of him that he had kissed more women than any other man in the state. But Bert was never heard to brag of his success in that line. One day he brought a letter from home, in the state of Maine, where he had just put up a dog house, and in a few years he had become a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford.

Original Sketches.
Bert Kernal.
No. 1.
Bert Kernal went to Boston when about eighteen years of age. He had received a good education and was considered smart. He was certainly far from without understanding that when he first went to the city of Boston the first man called him a Blunderer and a Braggart. Bert was good looking, industrious, temperate, and honest, and in a few years he became a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford. He was a fine, handsome, manly fellow, and one of the best of his kind in the trade. Bert had one fault, if it could be called one, and that was a passion for kissing pretty girls. It was said of him that he had kissed more women than any other man in the state. But Bert was never heard to brag of his success in that line. One day he brought a letter from home, in the state of Maine, where he had just put up a dog house, and in a few years he had become a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford.

Original Sketches.
Bert Kernal.
No. 1.
Bert Kernal went to Boston when about eighteen years of age. He had received a good education and was considered smart. He was certainly far from without understanding that when he first went to the city of Boston the first man called him a Blunderer and a Braggart. Bert was good looking, industrious, temperate, and honest, and in a few years he became a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford. He was a fine, handsome, manly fellow, and one of the best of his kind in the trade. Bert had one fault, if it could be called one, and that was a passion for kissing pretty girls. It was said of him that he had kissed more women than any other man in the state. But Bert was never heard to brag of his success in that line. One day he brought a letter from home, in the state of Maine, where he had just put up a dog house, and in a few years he had become a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford.

Original Sketches.
Bert Kernal.
No. 1.
Bert Kernal went to Boston when about eighteen years of age. He had received a good education and was considered smart. He was certainly far from without understanding that when he first went to the city of Boston the first man called him a Blunderer and a Braggart. Bert was good looking, industrious, temperate, and honest, and in a few years he became a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford. He was a fine, handsome, manly fellow, and one of the best of his kind in the trade. Bert had one fault, if it could be called one, and that was a passion for kissing pretty girls. It was said of him that he had kissed more women than any other man in the state. But Bert was never heard to brag of his success in that line. One day he brought a letter from home, in the state of Maine, where he had just put up a dog house, and in a few years he had become a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford.

Original Sketches.
Bert Kernal.
No. 1.
Bert Kernal went to Boston when about eighteen years of age. He had received a good education and was considered smart. He was certainly far from without understanding that when he first went to the city of Boston the first man called him a Blunderer and a Braggart. Bert was good looking, industrious, temperate, and honest, and in a few years he became a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford. He was a fine, handsome, manly fellow, and one of the best of his kind in the trade. Bert had one fault, if it could be called one, and that was a passion for kissing pretty girls. It was said of him that he had kissed more women than any other man in the state. But Bert was never heard to brag of his success in that line. One day he brought a letter from home, in the state of Maine, where he had just put up a dog house, and in a few years he had become a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford.

Original Sketches.
Bert Kernal.
No. 1.
Bert Kernal went to Boston when about eighteen years of age. He had received a good education and was considered smart. He was certainly far from without understanding that when he first went to the city of Boston the first man called him a Blunderer and a Braggart. Bert was good looking, industrious, temperate, and honest, and in a few years he became a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford. He was a fine, handsome, manly fellow, and one of the best of his kind in the trade. Bert had one fault, if it could be called one, and that was a passion for kissing pretty girls. It was said of him that he had kissed more women than any other man in the state. But Bert was never heard to brag of his success in that line. One day he brought a letter from home, in the state of Maine, where he had just put up a dog house, and in a few years he had become a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford.

Original Sketches.
Bert Kernal.
No. 1.
Bert Kernal went to Boston when about eighteen years of age. He had received a good education and was considered smart. He was certainly far from without understanding that when he first went to the city of Boston the first man called him a Blunderer and a Braggart. Bert was good looking, industrious, temperate, and honest, and in a few years he became a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford. He was a fine, handsome, manly fellow, and one of the best of his kind in the trade. Bert had one fault, if it could be called one, and that was a passion for kissing pretty girls. It was said of him that he had kissed more women than any other man in the state. But Bert was never heard to brag of his success in that line. One day he brought a letter from home, in the state of Maine, where he had just put up a dog house, and in a few years he had become a salesman, or commercial traveller, for the large wholesale Domestic Goods House of Marshall Brothers & Wilford.