

APPENDIX.

You have seen Indians, such as those hired by the British to murder women and children and kill and scalp the wounded. You have seen their dances and grimaces, and heard their yells. Can you fear THEM? No, You hold them in the utmost contempt.

VOLUNTEERS,

Disloyal and traitorous men have endeavoured to dissuade you from your duty. Some times they say, if you enter Canada, you will be held to service for five years. At others, they say, that you will not be furnished with supplies. At other times, they say, that if you are wounded, the Government will not provide for you by pensions. The just and generous course pursued by government towards the Volunteers who fought at Tippecanoe, furnishes an answer to the last objection. The others are too absurd to deserve any.

Volunteers! Esteem your generous and patriotic motives. You have made sacrifices on the altar of your country. You will not suffer the enemies of your fame to mislead you from the path of duty and honor, and deprive you of the esteem of a grateful country. You will shun the eternal infamy that awaits the man, who having come within sight of the enemy, basely shrinks in the moment of trial.

Soldiers of every Corps! It is in your power to retrieve the honor of your country and to cover yourselves with glory. Every man who performs a gallant action shall have his name made known to the nation. Rewards and honours await the brave. Infamy and contempt are reserved for cowards. Companions in arms! You came to vanquish a valiant foe, I know the choice you will make. Come on, my heroes! And when you attack the enemy's batteries let your rallying word be, "The Cannon lost at Detroit or Death."

ALEXANDER SMYTH,
Brigadier General Commanding.

Camp near Buffalo, 17th Nov. 1812.
