BITS OF FUN.

Top dressing—Hair oil.
A match lock—A wedding.
An airy fellow—A balloonist.
The echoes in Midlothian are very fine. What Gladstone says there is repeated all over the world.
Ralph Waldo Emerson once wrote: "We are not very much to blame for our marriages. We live amid hallucinations."

CHARLES KENDALL, McAdam Junction.

"Lem'mo see, if my father hadn't died back in '36 he'd be 104 this morn' spring."
"Whew! How come a man of such vitality ter die?"

With fiery eye looks down the sun
At summer watering places
And freckles now are seen upon
Most pretty maidens' faces.

SAMUEL WATTS,
Editor Carleton Sentinel and Customs Officer at Vanceboro.

A robber met a coal dealer on a lonely road and stopped him. "Your money or your life,"
said the robber. "Who are you?" asked the coal dealer. "I'm a highwayman," replied the man.
"Good enough," continued the coal dealer, "I'm a low-weight man. Shake. We should be friends."
And they were.
