The Algoma Missionary News

EDITOR.

REV. CHARLES PIERCY, BURK'S FALLS, ONT.

PUBLISHERS

THE ALGOMA MISSIONARY PRESS,

44-45 RICHMOND ST. WEST, TORONTO

THE ALGOMA MISSIONARY NEWS is the official organ of the Diocese of Algoma. It is published for the Diocese by The Algoma Missionary Press, 44-45 Richmond Street West, Toronto, to whom all subscriptions and communications of a business nature should be sent.

THE ALGOMA MISSIONARY NEWS (New Series) is published monthly. The price for single copies is 50 cents per annum.

All items of news and communications of an editorial nature should be sent direct to the Editor, The Rev. C. Piercy, Burk's Falls, Ontario, Canada.

Subscribers and friends are asked to bear in mind that all receipts beyond what are necessary to defray the bare cost of publication and management will accrue to the Diocesan funds. This being so it is hoped that the friends of the missionary work of the Diocese everywhere will not only send in their own subscriptions promptly, but also induce others to subscribe for the paper.

AGENT—The Rev. W. H. WADSWORTH, Toronto, is authorized to collect subscriptions for THE ALGOMA MISSIONARY NEWS.

Notes by the Way.

Why comes Temptation, but for man to meet
And master, and make crouch beneath his feet
And so be pedestaled in triumph?

—Browning.

WITHOUT adversity grace withers.—
Mason.

THE Triennial Council meets at North Bay on May 31st.

It is not unlikely that there will be some few changes in the incumbencies of missions this spring.

THE report of the Committee on S.P.C.K. deputation arrangements will be found in another column.

If thou intend and seek nothing else but the will of God and the good of thy neighbour, thou shalt thoroughly enjoy inward liberty.—Thomas à Kempis.

CHRISTIANITY, as a religion of human helpfulness and fellow feeling, needs a wider extension into the industrial and commercial life of our time.—Gilman.

We should often have reason to be ashamed of our most brilliant actions if the world could see the motives from which they spring.—La Rochefoucauld.

WITH many thanks we beg to acknowledge the interest taken in the extension of the circulation of THE ALGOMA MISSIONARY NEWS by Miss Frances Swanson, of Fort William.

VERY evident. What is? That the pioneer in Northern Ontario—that is, in Algoma Diocese—who farms and does not "dabble" in lumber or go shantying, succeeds better than he who does.

A MEETING of the Rural Deanery of Parry Sound was held at Emsdale in the first week of March. There were present, besides the Rural Dean, Rev. Messrs. Gillmor, Cobb, and Johnston.

THE daily (Toronto) papers report gold finds on Michipicoten Island, Lake Superior. If a "boom" takes place there the Church should have a missionary on the spot. It is in this diocese.

THE snow has gone earlier than usual. It has made it difficult to get about and, what is worse, cut short the hauling of "pulp" wood and other forest produce to points of shipment. This means real hardship to the pioneer.

LAY delegates to the Triennial Council must be communicants in good standing, and must present at said council credentials to that effect, signed by the clergymen in charge of the parish or mission which they represent.

IN a recent address the Archbishop of Canterbury expressed the wish that his clergy might preach twenty missionary sermons a year, not in the way of appeals for money, but as part of the necessary training of Christian people.

WE are sorry to report the serious illness of Rev. E. Lawlor. He has been confined to his bed for several weeks. We are sure that his friends, both in Algoma and beyond diocesan boundaries, not only sympathize with him but hope that he will soon be well enough to resume his duties.

THE report of the Committee on Synodical Organization is in the hands of every missionary, who also has copies for the use of the lay delegates from his mission to the Triennial Council. It is hoped that it will be well read by every delegate (clerical and lay) before the council meets.

AT the approaching Easter meetings two delegates will be elected to the Triennial Council. The ballot for election of lay delegates to the Provincial Synod must also be then marked with three names. The selection of said three names is decided by a majority of those present and entitled to vote.
