The Presbyterian Ladies' College Ottawa

Ottawa, the capital of the Dominion, and its most beautiful city, has peculiar advantages as the location for a Ladies' College.

The situation is an ideal one.

The College building is commodious.

The grounds ample.

All the departments—ACADEMIC, MUSIC, ART, ELOCUTION, etc.—under teachers carefully chosen for culture, character and professional efficiency.

The Conservatory of Music is under the care of Mr. H. Puddecombe, who is unrivalled in this country as director and teacher of the piano.

The Home Department is under the careful supervision of a lady of wide experience and culture.
