

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

Threads of Gold.

What about your offering to the Convention Fund? How much of the balance of the $195.13 of our apportionment are you going to give? Let us give promptly and cheerfully and unto the Lord. The Treasurer must send all amounts to Secretary Cohom before 31st July to get acknowledgment this year. We cannot neglect this call and prosper. Religion that does not consecrate a man's money is vain. It is not the quantity we give, but the quality of the sacrifice involved. A well-rounded Christian will not let any part of Christ's work suffer. We need a thorough awakening in Christian giving.

Be sure and get a copy of "Our Annual" for particulars concerning the picnic. The day is Wednesday, July 13; the place, Hosterman's; the steamship, "Hiawatha"; the place of starting, Black & Flinn's wharf, foot Proctor's Lane; the hours 9 a. m. and 1.30 p. m. sharp; calls, at West India Wharf en route. The scholars must be in their places in the Vestry at 8 a. m. sharp to secure tickets and march to the boat. This picnic is going to eclipse all others. A grand program of sports has been arranged by the Young Men's Class. Be sure you come and bring your friends. Parties holding tickets, please make returns to the Secretary, Tuesday evening, in Vestry.

Wedding Bells. At 15 Compton Ave., June 29, our excellent young people, Willis Keddy and Lillie Moreash, were united in marriage by the Pastor. They remain with us, and have our hearty congratulations and best wishes.

The ladies are requested to send in their "Home Mission Barrels" this week.

The Organ Committee's Report was adopted. We are to have a pipe organ, and a strong committee has been appointed to carry the resolution into effect. The committee is expecting substantial and enthusiastic support from the church and congregation.

We are justly proud of our Bloomfield Street Mission. How glad we were to hear the little ones in our Missionary Service last Wednesday evening! They came to their church home, and we want to see them often. Our Mission says thank the Lord.
