WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO'S
IMPROVED
 BUTTER COLOR
 A NEW DISCOVERY.

For several years we have furnished the Dairy-men of America with an excellent artificial color for butter, so meritorious that a search has been made everywhere for a color with great success, everywhere, and the highest and only prizes at both International Dairy Fairs.

But by patient and scientific chemical research we have improved in several points, and now offer this new color as the best in the world.
 It will Not Turn the Buttermilk. It Will Not Turn Rancid. It is the Strongest, Brightest and Cheapest Color Made.

And, while prepared in oil, is so compounded that it is impossible for it to become rancid.
Beware of all imitations, and of all other oil colors, for they are liable to become rancid and spoil the butter.

If you cannot get the "Improved" write us to know where and how to get it without extra charge.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO., Burlington, Vt.

Jos. BEAUDIN, M.D., Hull, P.Q., writes: "Dr.
 Thomas' Eclectic Oil commands a large and increasing sale which it richly merits. I have always found it exceedingly helpful; I use it in all cases of rheumatism, as well as fractures and dislocations. I prefer its use of myself to calm the pains of a broken leg with dislocation of the foot, and in two days I was entirely relieved of the pain."

SICK and bilious headache, and all derangements of stomach and bowels, cured by Dr. Fick's Pellets—our anti-bilious granules. 25 cents No cheap boxes to allow waste of virtues.

Sparkles.

 ing one of the speakers said: "Sin is writ-

A FENCE rail was blown right through the body of a mule by the Mississippi cyclone, so the story goes. Even a cyclone has to approach a mule sideways to get the better of ONE of the provincial papers is discussing the question, "May cousins marry?" We should hope so. We don't see why a cousin hasn't as much right to marry as a brother, or an uncle, or a son.

A PHYSICIAN says that smoking makes men bald-headed. Smoking in the parlour after the lace curtains have been freshly put up is apt to have that effect when the smok-er's wife finds it out.

THE man who sees nothing but the newspaper he is reading when a lady wants a seat in a car, is a man who would be so busy with his prayer-book, as to balk the contribution box when it passes by in church.

AN old lady was asked her opinion about Mrs. Smith, her next door neighbour.
 "Well," she said, "I am not the one to speak ill of anybody, but I feel sorry for Mr.
 Smith."—Rochester Post-Express.

A LONG MONTH.—Mr. Campbell: "Cold weather, Donald." Donald: "Yiss, yiss, Mr. Cam'eth. But she's not so pad nor as long forbye as when I was a lad, when there was six weeks of it and more in March what-effer!"

"Is anybody waiting on you?" said a polite dry-goods clerk to a young lady from the country, who had just entered the store.
 "Yes, sir," replied the blushing damsel.
 "That's my fellow outside. He wouldn't come in the store."

VISITOR from the country, who has been doing the sights of London, when asked what he thought of the cathedral nave, said:
 "What! the fellow who took the shillings?
 I didn't know you called things so exactly by their proper names in London!"

"THEY say Charley has married. Do you know his wife? Is she a woman of any intelligence? Is she well-informed?" "Well informed! Well I should say so. She has belonged to the village sewing circle for ten years and never missed a meeting."

"My case is just here," said a citizen to a lawyer, a few days ago. "The plaintiff will swear that I hit him, I will swear that I did not. Now what can you lawyers make out of that if we go to trial?" "Five dollars apiece," was the prompt reply as he extended his hand.

A YOUNG gentleman took his sister, a wee miss, to see a family in which he is a regular caller. The little girl made herself quite at home, and exhibited great fondness for one of the young ladies, hugging her heartily.
 "How very affectionate she is," said the lady of the house. "Yes, just like her brother," responded the young lady unthinkingly.
 Paterfamilias looked up sternly over his spectacles, the young gentleman blushed, and there was consternation in the family circle.

A GREAT INSTITUTION.

The surgeons of the International Throat and Lung Institute, operating from their different offices, Montreal, Toronto, Detroit, Mich., and Winnipeg, Man., are treating more patients suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Latyngitis, Pharyngitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, than any other institution in the world. We will treat no case we think incurable. We can help every case and cure the majority we undertake to treat if patients will strictly follow our directions. By the use of cold inhalations commanded to the diseased parts by the Spirometer the wonderful invention of Dr. M. Souvielle, of Paris, ex-aide surgeon of the French army, and other proper local and constitutional treatment, we are curing thousands of cases of the above named diseases every year.

A QUEEN OF THE STAGE.

"Her Second Love," and the Important Secret She Reveals for the Benefit of Women.

(New York World.)

Several years ago the American public were aroused by the entree upon the stage of a little lady who had been previously but little announced. She was one of an innumerable number of aspirants for public favour and had no instrumentality, aside from her own talents, to cause recognition. In spite of this fact, however, she quickly achieved a warm place in the heart of the public which she has continued to hold ever since. When it was announced therefore, that Miss Maude Granger would star the coming season in the play "Her Second Love," written by Mr. John A. Stevens, it was only natural that unusual interest should be manifested, not only in theatrical circles, but in other branches of the community. This was specially the case, as it was known that Miss Granger had, for the past year, been in exceedingly delicate health, and the determination to star in a strong emotional play was the more surprising. One of the staffs of this paper was accordingly deputed to see the popular lady and verify the rumour of her amount of its incorrectness.

Miss Granger's countenance is familiar to nearly everyone in the United States. It is a face once seen never to be forgotten. Features remarkable in their outline and contour are surmounted by a pair of large and deep eyes indicative of the greatest soul power. It is easy to see where Miss Granger obtains the ability to portray characters of the most emotional nature. She possesses within herself the elements of feeling without which no emotion can be conveyed to an audience. The man of news found the lady at her home in this city and was accorded a quiet welcome. It was evident at once that she was in greatly improved health, which the expression and colour of her countenance both indicated.

"Is it true, Miss Granger, that you contemplate a starring tour the coming season?"

"Yes, indeed. My season begins in Chicago on the 16th of July. From there I go to San Francisco and then play the remainder of the season through the eastern and western States."

"Are you confident your health will permit such an undertaking?"

A ringing laugh was the first reply to this question, after which she said:

"Certainly. It is true I have been ill for the past two years but now I am wholly recovered. Few people can have any idea of the strain a conscientious actress undergoes in essaying an emotional part. It is necessary to put one's whole soul into the work in order to rightly portray the character. This necessitates an utter abandonment of one's personality and an assumption of the character portrayed. If this is an emotional part it is necessary to feel the same emotions the part is supposed to feel. For more than a year I actually cried each night in certain passages of a part I was playing. The audience considered it art. Probably it was, but those were none the less real tears and the effect was none the less trying upon my health."

"But do you anticipate avoiding this in the future?"

"Not in the least. I expect to have just as great a strain as before, but with restored health, and a knowledge of how to retain it I do not fear."

"You speak of a knowledge how to retain health.
 Will you please explain what you mean by that?"

"You must be aware that women by their very natures are subject to troubles and afflictions unknown to the stronger sex. The name of these troubles is legion, but in whatever form they may come they are weaknesses which interfere with every ambition and hope in life. I believe thousands of noble women are to-day suffering agonies of which even their best friends and relatives know little or nothing. When I reflect upon it I confess it makes me sad. Now all this misery arises largely from an ignorance of the laws of life or a neglect to carefully observe them. I speak from the depths of a bitter experience in saying this, and I am thankful I know the means of restoration, and how to remain in perfect health."

"Please explain more fully."

"Well, I have found a remedy which seems specially adapted for this very purpose. It is pure and palatable and controls the health and life as, I believe, the women in America were to use it I am quite sure most of the suffering and many deaths might be avoided."

"What is this wonderful remedy?"

"Warner's Safe Cure."

"And you use it?"

"Constantly."

"And hence believe you will be able to go through the coming season successfully?"

"I am quite certain of it."

"A few questions more, Miss Granger. Will you please give me a list of the parts you have created and the plays you have taken part in since your first appearance in public?"

"I first played for some time with the amateurs in New York and Brooklyn. I then went to the Union Square theatre for two seasons, after that to the Boston Globe for one season and then to Booth's theatre in this city. Next I supported John McCullough and afterward shared in Juliet, Camille, Rosalind, etc.
 Subsequently I created the part of Cicely Elaine in the Galley Slave and also starred in Two Nights in Rome, playing the part of Antonia. The past year I have been playing in the Planter's Wife and the coming season, as I have said, will be devoted to Her Second Love."

As the writer was returning home he fell into a train of musing and wondered if all the women in this land who are suffering could only know Miss Gran-ger's experience and the remarkable results achieved by the pure remedy she used, how much suffering might be avoided and how much happiness secured.

PLEASANT TO THE TASTE.—Children and persons with weak constitutions have always found great difficulty in taking Cod Liver Oil, and from this fact it has not been universally used, but with Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophos-phates of Lime and Soda, this prejudice is removed.
 It is so thoroughly disguised that you cannot detect the Cod Liver Oil. One physician writes us that it is used almost as a beverage in his family; another person informs us that he had to hide the bottle from his children. For Coughs and Colds, broken-down constitutions, and all Lung Diseases, it has no equal.

A Great Problem.

All ladies who may be troubled with nervous prostration, who suffer from organic displacement, who have a sense of weariness and a feeling of stagnation; who are languid in the morning, in whom the appetite for food is capricious and sleep at proper hours uncertain, should have recourse to Mrs.
 Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MR. C. E. RIGGINS, Beamsville, writes: "A customer who tried a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery says it is the best thing he ever used; to quote his own words, 'It just seems to touch the spot affected.' About a year ago he had an attack of bilious fever, and was afraid he was in for another, when he commended this valuable medicine with such happy results."
