LITERATURE AND DOGMA: AN INAUGURAL LECTURE, BY REV. W. McLAREN, PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY IN KNOX COLLEGE. TORONTO: WILLING & WILLIAMSON.

We are glad that in accordance with the request of many who heard it Prof. McLaren has been led to publish his Inaugural Lecture. It will repay a careful perusal. The Professor having defined the province of Systematic Theology, proceeds to vindicate and defend it, especially against the assault of Matthew Arnold, in his recent work, entitled "Literature and Dogma." We have not space to follow the defence adopted by Prof. McLaren, but we believe those who read the lecture will admit that the defence is both able and successful.

MONEYS RECEIVED UP TO 21st OCTOBER.
