

Lambton Park whither the children will be conveyed by the street cars. The cost of this annual outing amounts to something like $53, and the Rector is anxious to have subscriptions sent in, sufficient to cover this amount and the sum of $8.05 still owing for last year's picnic.

This number will be a double number and will include the July and August numbers of the Dawn of Day. There will be no further issue till September. This is owing to the scantiness of Parish news in the summer months. It also saves the management very considerable expense.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Martha Lovell and husband and family desire, through this Magazine, to most sincerely and gratefully express their thanks to the friends who so kindly and generously considered them in the loss of their clothing by fire at Nicomen, B. C., on January 17th, 1898. A friend in need is a friend indeed.

THE PARISH MAGAZINE.

Few persons are aware that this obscure and humble Magazine has, outside of this congregation, not only a reader but a Patron, who guards every number, indexes each, and finally has them bound in handsome calf covers. These he presents to St. George's Church. The first volume is in beautiful manuscript, with engrossed capitals, and contains a history of the Church from its foundation and an account of the presentations it has received. The second dates from 1881, when the first Parish Magazine was issued; and the third volume continues the Magazine down to 1897. Thus our Parochial records are secured to the Church from the very beginning.

No one was more fit for such a labour of love than our sometime Churchwarden, Mr. Chadwick, and we thank him on behalf of all St. George's, not only for the gifts themselves and the personal skill he has bestowed on them, but also for the real and continuing interest he has always shown in the affairs of the Church and Parish.
