suits against it are withdrawn. The securities appear to have been deposited in trust, and as soon as the proper claimants appeared and proved their rights, they were delivered up, satisfactory arrangements being made as to the commissions earned.

CONCERNING John Currie, the missing cashier and confidential clerk for J. Hingston Smith & Co., Winnipeg, whose troubles were noticed by us last week, the Manitoba Free Press says:—His books are in a most unsatisfactory condition, and it is evident the firm have been losers to the amount of several thousand dollars. His speculations have been going on for nearly a year. The missing man is about 40 years of age, and leaves a wife and three children. It was known for some time past that he was living very fast and spent a good deal of time and money in gambling. He was last seen by Mr. Jos. Mulholland in St. Paul, whom he told that he was on his way to Ontario, but it is more than likely he will remain under the sheltering wings of the American eagle. The firm in a recent statement, says it expects to show a surplus of $15,000. There are privileged claims of $6,000 and the stock of sporting goods and fancy hardware amounts to $25,000. The absconder is said to have stolen $800.

This meeting of the creditors of DeSola Bros & Ascher, last Wednesday, was more lively than pleasant. The statement having been read, a Mr. Phillips, who represented the New York creditors, subjected the partners, chiefly Mr. Hyam D. G. Ascher, to an exhaustive cross-examination, his purpose being evidently to show that a large portion of the bad debts had been taken over from and with his business, about three years ago. The statement showed liabilities of $93,000, and nominal assets of about $63,000, or an actual deficiency of $29,752. To this may be added $8,000 capital at starting—supposed to have been brought over from the H. S. G. Ascher business. The amount due bank is $43,500 and Mr. Jesse Joseph (uncle of Mr.

DeSola is liable for $27,000 of this, not yet matured. The direct liability to Mr. Joseph is $36,223. The goods on hand amount to $22,175; the book-debts are $32,080 of which between $5,000 and $7,000 only are reported good; bills receivable $3,800. Ascher's personal drawings were about $8,000 during the three years; and during this time they paid some $18,000 for interest and commissions. On goods pledged to Mr. Harris Vineberg they are reported to have paid as high as 18 per cent; and it was recommended to that gentlemen that he assume the triple sign. At the meeting yesterday the insolvents offered 25 cents in the dollar, but the majority refused to accept. If wound up, the estate would probably pay 20 to 25 per cent. Mr. Jesse Joseph considerably waived his privilege as landlord, although holding judgment for rent amounting to $3,800. There is $500 due for wages:
