MARYLAND.—Here are some facts for our good friend "Aspen" to reflect upon. They were recently published by the Baltimore American The Church there, it would seem, did not suffer from having a Bishop whose Churchmanship was not of the chameleon kind. In 1869 there were 2,655 Communicants. In nine years they have increased nearly nine-fold, to 18,200. The Communion alms of 1869 were $1,440; those of 1878, $22,000. The contributions for all other Church purposes (exclusive of elergymen's salar-see) were in 1869, $12,856; in 1878 $239,976, nearly twenty times as great Of baptisms, in 1869, there were 728 in 1878 there were 5,515. Two hundred and ninety-nine persons were confirmed in 1869; in 1878 the Bishop reports 1,637. Sunday-school scholars are ten times as numerous as they were nine years ago, the number then reported having been 1,393; the report of last year makes them 13,720.—Living Church.

Tennesses.—Sewance—Ordination to the Pricethood of a Professor in the Dividity School.—On Sunday, January 4th, in St. Paul's on the Mountain, the parish church of Sewance, the bishop of the diocese advanced to the order of the diocese advanced to the order of priests the Rev. Professor A. Jaeger, formarly the rabbi of a Jewish synagogue in Mobile, Ala.

The Princess Louise while in England oponed a now building which has been erected in Wenyes-road, Blackheath, by the Girls' Public Day-schools Company, and is intended for pupils of the middle classes. It is nominally for three hundred scholars, but it would accommedate a much larger number. The London Guardian says: The Princess was received at the principal entrance by Mr. W. H. Stone, chairman of the council, and Mr. Robson, the architect, and conducted round the building. On entering the contral hall she was presented with a bouquet of choice exotics by Miss Robertson, daughter of Vice-Chancellor Robertson, the first pupil entering for the new school. Her Royal Highess was then conducted to the platform; and the Lord's Collect, "Prevent us," and the Lord's long description. The London of the council, and Mr. Provent us," and the Lord's Collect, "Prevent us," and the Lord's long description. The London of the contral hall she was presented by Miss Robertson, the first pupil entering for the new school. Her Royal Highess was then conducted to the platform; and the Lord's Collect, "Prevent us," and the Lord's long a new school. Her Royal Highness was then conducted to the platform; and the Collect, "Prevent us," and the Lord's Prayer having been said by the Rev. H. Jones, her Royal Highness declared the school to be open, wishing it every prosperity, and trusted it would be as successful as the last. Mr. Stone then delivered a short address, in which he mentioned that the company had now seventeen schools in operation—at Chelsea, Clapham, Croydon, Dulwich, Hackney, Highbury, Maida-valer. Notting-hill, St. John'swood, Bath, Brighton, Gateshead, Norwich, Nottingham, Oxford, and Sheffield, and the number of pupils at the comwood, Bath, Brighton, Gateshead, Norwich, Nottingham, Oxford, and Sheffield, and the number of pupils at the commencement of the last term was 2,885. In reference to a vote of thanks which was given to the Princess, Mr. Stone said he had been commanded by her Reyal Highness to say that she should fellow the progress of these schools with great interest during her absence from England. Her Royal Highness and suite then departed; and as her carriage passed through the ranks of the crowd outside she was greeted with leyal and enthusiastic cheering.

It was stated at the Chester Consistory Court last week that in 1879 forty-one faculties were granted for the restoration and improvement of churches, and the amount expended thereon was £50,000.

The Bishop of Rochester consecrated on Saturday last the new Church of St. George's, Perry-hill, Lewisham. The cost of the church, £9000, has been entirely defrayed by Mr. George Parker of Lewisham. TO
