

HON. MR. JUSTICE MIDDLETON:—The question raised is of importance to the parties. The case is very near the border line and the authorities are not easy to be reconciled, if indeed reconciliation is possible. The case is one in which I think leave should be granted, and, as I entertain this view, I do not think I should discuss the merits of the application.

---