

4. Each Contracting Party reserves the right to withhold, revoke or suspend the grant to the designated airline of the privileges specified in paragraph 2, sub-paragraph (c) of Article 2 of the Agreement or to impose such conditions as it may deem necessary on the exercise by such airline of those privileges, in any case where it is not satisfied that substantial ownership and effective control of that airline are vested in the Contracting Party designating the airline or in its nationals.

5. Each Contracting Party reserves the right to revoke an authorization for operation or to suspend the exercise by the designated airline of the other Contracting Party of the privileges specified in paragraph 2, sub-paragraph (c) of Article 2 of the Agreement or to impose such conditions as it may deem necessary on the exercise by such designated airline of those privileges, in any case where such airline fails to comply with the laws and regulations of the Contracting Parties granting those privileges or otherwise fails to operate in accordance with the conditions prescribed in the Agreement; provided that, unless immediate revocation, suspension or imposition of conditions is essential to prevent further infringements of such laws and regulations, or for reason of safety of air navigation, this right shall be exercised only after consultation in conformity with Article 13 and 14.
