

festivals held in Canada and of Canadian films and delegations in international film festivals held in the USSR.

1987

- a) The Soviet side will send and the Canadian side will receive films and a delegation of cinematographic workers, consisting of three people, for a period of seven days to participate in the Montreal International Film Festival;
- b) The Soviet side will send and the Canadian side will receive films and a delegation of cinematographic workers consisting of two people for a period of seven days to participate in the Canadian International Animated Film Festival;
- c) The Soviet side will send and the Canadian side will receive films for the Vancouver Film Festival;
- d) The Soviet side will receive and the Canadian side will send films and an official delegation consisting of three people for a period of ten days to participate in the XV Moscow International Film Festival.