

72. If a member neglects or refuses or, for any disciplinary reasons, becomes unable to perform his duties or misconducts himself, the Government of Ghana, on the advice of the Commanding Officer, Canadian Armed Forces Training Team may terminate his service with the Armed Forces of Ghana. All advantages and concessions granted to him as a member shall with effect from the date of termination of his service, be subject to the discretion of the Government of Ghana acting on the advice of the Commanding Officer, Canadian Armed Forces Training Team. The Government of Ghana will be responsible for arranging free passage to London for the member and his family.

73. If a member is found to be physically, temperamentally or otherwise unsuitable and is, as a result, returned to Canada, free passage to London for himself and his family, if in Ghana, will be arranged by Ghana.

74. In the event of the death of a member while serving with the Armed Forces of Ghana, his family, if in Ghana, will be provided by Ghana with free passage to London. Expenses in connection with or grants toward the cost of the funeral of the member will be borne by the Government of Ghana under the same regulations as apply to the Canadian Forces.

75. The Government of Canada reserves the right to withdraw members from service in Ghana should conditions arise which the Government of Canada considers make such action necessary. In such cases the Government of Canada will be responsible for arranging the return of the member and his family, if in Ghana, from Ghana to Canada at the expense of the Government of Canada.

PART IV—FINAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE XXXII

Revisions

76. Either of the Governments may at any time request the revision of any Article of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXXIII

Commencement and Termination

77. This Agreement shall supersede the Technical Assistance Agreement on Military Training between the Government of Canada and the Government of the Republic of Ghana signed at Accra, January 8, 1962. It shall enter into force on the date of signature with effect from the first day of June, 1976 and shall apply to any member in Ghana on or after that date. It shall remain in force until terminated by one of the following methods:

- (a) by either of the Governments with six months' written notice to that effect given to the other Government;
- (b) without complying with subparagraph (a) of this Article, by the recall of the Canadian Armed Forces Training Team by the Government of Canada where such recall is in the public interest of Canada; or
- (c) by the Government of Ghana without previous notification if the Government of Ghana decides that such termination is in the public interest of Ghana.
