In other words to December in all parks last fall, 169,544 days' work was given to needy men at an approximate cost of $367,317 or approximately $2.17 per day.

In all works in the national parks to the amount of $563,800 were authorized and up to date $411,205.20 has been expended.

In Alberta, in connection with the Banff-Waterton lakes park, Elk island, and national parks there was expended $4,449, at an average cost of $2.42 per day, the work being carried on during the month of November, and 165 men being employed. This amount provided 1,843 man days' works.

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: Is that $2.42 per man?

Mr. GORDON: That includes materials. In Saskatchewan in the Prince Albert national [Mr. Gordon.]

park in the month of November 295 men were employed, giving 4,730 man day's work at an approximate cost of $10,728. I am inclined to think that that is the exact figure. The average cost was $2.05 per day.

Mr. WOODSWORTH: Can the minister tell us how much of this actually went to the men? He has said that material is included.

Mr. GORDON: I shall take note of the hon. member's request; I think I can get the information. In Riding Mountain park, Mani-
