

November 4th, 1930.

Dean Douglas Clarke,
Conservatorium of Music,
McGill University.

My dear Dean Clarke,

I want to congratulate you upon your splendid work in connection with the Symphony Orchestra which is giving the public concerts at the Orpheum Theatre. This is indeed a move in the right direction, and I am very pleased indeed to note the support and encouragement you are now receiving.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.