

PAGE

R.

PAGE

Railway Accidents, very few ... 216-219

Railway Companies. (See NEGLIGENCE.)

sign-post in the way ... 77
 let'ing off steam at crossing ... 78
 must take more care of passengers than strangers 103
 need only stop at usual places ... 139
 must maintain order ... 146
 must forward passengers if line blocked ... 202
 are not insurers of passengers ... 206-211
 extent of liability ... 207-210
 rule in England as to liability ... 207
 in New York ... 208
 do not warrant that car is perfect ... 211
 presumption when passenger injured ... 207
 responsible for utmost care ... 206-208, 214
 obligation extends to all apparatus of transportation ... 207-208
 perfect apparatus not expected ... 207-211
 degree of care required ... 211-215
 must adopt every precaution in known use ... 207
 contributory negligence ... 221
 seats must be provided ... 222-223
 too many in train ... 223
 injuries to children. (See CHILDREN.)
 responsible for all lawfully aboard ... 233-234
 may limit liability ... 235-236
 limitation does not extend to independent wrongs 236
 injuries producing death. (See DEATH.)
 liability for acts of agents and servants. (See AGENTS, SERVANTS.)
 bad construction of line ... 242
 rule as to passengers and employees... 242-264
 wrongs done by strangers ... 270

... 60
 ... 64-76
 ... 89
 ... 106
 ... 141
 143-152
 ... 143
 144-147
 ... 146
 ... 149
 ... 151
 ... 151
 ... 152
 ... 152
 153-156
 ... 157
 ... 157
 ... 160
 ... 160
 ... 165
 ... 221
 221-225
 ... 226
 206-211
 -65, 211-214
 ... 3, 18
 ... 18
 ... 41
 ... 120