

TOWNSHIP LINES. Statute, directing the running thereof, and imposing fine on surveyors for neglect of duty, 552.

act for raising money, to defray expense of running such lines, 552.

directions as to prosecutions for fines, 553.

TREASON. Provincial enactment concerning the offence, 553.

how a justice shall proceed on a charge thereof, 553.

bare words do not amount to treason, 554.

no accessaries, but all are principals, 554.

misprision of treason, 554.

TREASURERS, (County.) Enactment for appointing them, 554.

Treasury Notes. See Titles,—Forgery, 218, and Larceny, 291.

Trees, (destroying,) see Trespases, 563.

TRESPASSES.

I. Regulations concerning Fences, and of the recovery of Damages for Trespases by Cattle.

enactments of 3 G. 4, c. 32, 555.

what fences shall be deemed lawful, 555.

proceedings, where cattle break enclosures and do damage, 555.

building and maintaining fences between adjoining lands, 556.

fence need not be kept on wood, barren, or burnt land, 556.

what rivers, &c. shall be considered a sufficient fence, 556.

application to sessions from the judgment of a fence viewer, 556.

where owner of cattle shall be liable for damage done by them, although fence is defective, 557.

recovering damages not exceeding £3, before one justice, 557.

prosecutions to be within one year, 557.

directions as to recovery of penalties, 557.

II. Impounding Cattle, trespassing; and herein of Rescue, Pound Breach, and Replevin.

impounding cattle and proceedings thereon, 558.

rescuing cattle in custody for trespass, 559.

breaking pound, 559.

replevying, and proceedings thereon, 559.

Form of writ of replevin, 559.

commitment for rescue, on failure of distress, 559.

directions as to prosecutions, 560.