

Garnier Bay

Part of BARROW'S STRAIT

PRINCE REGENT'S Inlet

Discovered 25th August 1821

Discovered under the immediate inspection of CAPTAIN W. E. BARRY R.N. & H. V. HEAD, MIDY

Vide Track of the Ship in 1824 1825
Travelling parties

Cape Clarence

Prince Leopold's Isles

C. Neppings

Elwen Bay

Batty Bay

Secondary Limestone
with abundant fossil shells.

Flare of 1824 July 25th 1825
Dip 80° 00' N
Var 125° 31' W

Party first driven on shore southern termination of precipitous land

Dip 80° 00' N
Var 125° 31' W

Cresswell Bay

Cape Garry

Much open water here on the 25th of August 1823

PRINCE REGENT'S Inlet
discovered 25th August

Secondary Limestone

Jackson's Inlet

Port Bowen

Neilly Harbour

Sherrin Mount
a remarkable table hill

Secondary Limestone
with fossil remains

Fitzgerald Bay

C. Kater