

it does not kill, it brings back prisoners a week later full of hot air."

Once at Valcartier camp a Sergeant shouted at me, "Don't you know the company has fallen in? Double up and fall in at the river." "Not on your life, Sergeant," says I. "I joined the first Canadian contingent — not the Coldstream Guards."