

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

CHAPTER IX.

ELECTIONS IN BROME COUNTY DURING THE HALF CENTURY.

	PAGE.
First Representation as the East Riding, 1854.—Represented as Brome County in 1858.—Names of the Candidates up to 1908.—Short Sketch of the Life of Hon. S. A. Fisher and Hon. H. T. Duffy	178

CHAPTER X.

KNOWLTON.

Situation.—Buildings.—Merchants.—Churches and Pastors, past and present.—Banks.—Physicians.—Sketch of the Life of Dr. Foster.—Early Residents and their Homes.—Sawmills.—Grist Mills.—Tannery.—Newspapers.—Brome Library Association.—Yamaska Lake Fatalities.—Distributing Home.—Attorneys.—Sketch of the Life of Hon. W. W. Lynch and Mr. S. W. Foster.—Independent Order of Oddfellows.—Independent Order of Foresters.—Masons.—Tribute to the late Queen Victoria.—Brome County Historical Society.—Museum.—Knowlton Conference.	183
--	-----

CHAPTER XI.

PEOPLE WHO HAVE LIVED IN KNOWLTON.

George G. Foster, K.C.—Samuel Baxter Foster.—Dr. E. J. Hemming.—Israel England.—Mrs. Bryant.—Mills Family.—Libby Family	220
---	-----

CHAPTER XII.

POTTON FEMALE BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

Formation.—Reasons.—Members.—Minutes of Meetings.—Work done	230
---	-----

CHAPTER XIII.

EARLY SETTLERS IN POTTON.

Bradbury Green.—Children.—Distillery.—Sawmill.—Mansonville.—Joseph Manson.—His Early Recollections	238
--	-----