

to in this brief submitted to-day by Mr. Morrell.

MR. BENICE: Actually in the brief the Justice Department supplied us the question of stirring up discontent is referred to in that connection.

MR. ANDERSON: It may be referred to in those general remarks.

THE CHAIRMAN: As an undesirable effect but not as a reason for banning the organization.

MR. ANDERSON: The general effect of this literature is amongst other things in connection with the ordinary responsibility of citizens particularly in times of war --

MR. HANSELL: What I am anxious to know is this, just how much weight that had in the opinion of the Department of Justice in declaring this organization illegal. If it had any kind of weight at all, Mr. Chairman, I will maintain that political organizations should also be declared illegal for they stir up a good deal of misunderstanding and political strife. I am simply comparing the two.

THE CHAIRMAN: Even speeches in parliament.

MR. HANSELL: Even speeches in parliament.

MR. HAZEN: Is not that an argument that should be brought up when we consider whether or not the ban should be continued?

MR. HANSELL: All right, I will deal with it then.

MR. MacKINNON: If you hold it until the witness is finished giving his evidence then you will be perfectly right in bringing it up.

MR. MacINNIS: May I make one slight correction in something I said on June 17 on page B-7. In the last paragraph on that page there are some words said by myself. The paragraph reads:

"I disagree that the Ukrainian Labour Farmers Temple Association is a proper subject for this committee to
