

income arising from such investments together with all moneys derived from other sources, shall be applied to the defraying of the current expenses of the Corporation, and the relief of persons whom the Corporation may deem proper objects of such relief according to their by-laws, then in force, and to the provisions of this Act.

3. The affairs and business of the Corporation shall be managed by such Officers and Committees, and under such restrictions as touching the powers and duties of such Officers and Committees, as by by-law in that behalf the Corporation may from time to time ordain; and the Corporation may assign to any of such Officers such remuneration as they may deem requisite.

4. The Corporation may make such by-laws, not contrary to law, as they shall deem expedient, for the administration and government of the Corporation, and of such Asylum, or other Charitable Institutions, as they shall maintain; and may repeal or amend the same from time to time, observing always, however, such formalities as by such by-laws may be prescribed to that end; and generally shall have all the corporate powers necessary to the ends of this Act.

5. The by-laws of the said Association, not being contrary to law, shall be the by-laws of the Corporation hereby constituted, until they shall be repealed or altered as aforesaid.

6. Until others shall be elected according to the by-laws of the Corporation, the present officers of the Association shall be those of the Corporation.

7. All subscriptions, and all penalties due to the Corporation under any by-law, may be recovered by suit in the name of the Corporation; but any member may withdraw therefrom at any time, on payment of all amounts by him due to the Corporation, inclusive of his subscription for the year then current.

8. No person otherwise competent to be a witness in any suit or prosecution in which the Corporation may be engaged, shall be deemed incompetent to be such witness, by reason of his being or having been a member or officer of the Corporation.

9. The Corporation shall at all times, when thereunto required by the Governor, or by either branch of the Legislature, make a full return of their property, real and personal, and of their receipts and expenditure, for such period, and with such details and other information, as the Governor or either branch of the Legislature may require.

10. This Act shall be deemed a Public Act.
