

—Merle D'Aubigné—Metis—Portneuf—Rev. Alex. Young—St. Sylvester—Leeds—Student Missionaries—Kennebec—Inverness—Eastern Townships—Libraries—Danville—Richmond—Melbourne—American Land Company—Nova Scotia and New Brunswick in 1858—Knox Church, Toronto—Dr. Topp—Newfoundland—History—Rise of Presbyterianism—Rev. M. Harvey—Literary Successes—St. John's described—Harbor Grace—Visit to Lower Provinces in 1849—Lady Bannerman—Cape Breton—Fortress of Louisburg Thermopylæ of the West—Mrs. Mackay in 1827 and "her little island"—Farquharson, the Pioneer—Dr. Hugh McLeod's manifold labours—Stewart, of New Glasgow—Truro—Dr. Forrester—Theological College and Dr. Keir—Many Worthies—Nottawasaga—James Mair—Osprey—Artemisia—the Perth early Settlers—Sullivan—Euphrasia and St. Vincent in 1859—Meaford—Collingwood—Supplying for Mr. McTavish when at Red River—Perth—Rev. J. B. Duncan—Ramsay—Beckwith—Smith's Falls—Brockville—Sheriff Sherwood—Mr. Smith—Spencerville—Ottawa in 1859—Quebec in 1863—Mr. Crombie—Huron District in 1867—Chicago: its History and Resources—Presbyterian Seminary—Christian activities of Chicago—D. L. Moody—Scotchmen and Canadians—First Scotch Presbyterian Church—Elnira—Highland Settlement—Monmouth—Dr. Wallace—Aurora—Rev. Ed. Ebbs—Evanston.....page 289.

CHAPTER XVIII.

PIONEERS OF PRESBYTERIANISM IN CANADA.

Henry—Spark—Harkness—Bethune—Young—First Presbyterian Communion in Roman Catholic Church—Gabriel Street Church—First Presbytery—Forrest—Easton—Esson—Black—Robert McDowall, of Fredericksburg—The suspected Rebel—Niagara—Young, Burns, Creen, Fraser, McGill—Father Eastman and his "Seven Churches"—William Smart in 1811—The Stray Twelve Pounder—Incidents—Robert Boyd in 1821—William Bell in 1817—Anecdotes—James Harris—Father Jenkins—Arch. Henderson—Father of our church—The First Synod—John Crichton's Letters—Glimpses of Canada's destitution fifty years since—Letters from Dr. Mathieson, of Montreal—Rev. George Cheyne—Incidents—United Synod—Pioneers of the United Presbyterian Synod—Progress of the Canada Presbyterian Church.....page 340.

CHAPTER XIX.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Domestic Character—Death of Two Children—Two Letters concerning, to Mrs. Briggs—Domestic Likings—Interest in Children's Welfare—Illustrations—New York Celebrities—St. Catharines—