

PRIZES GIVEN AT ST. ANDREWS

Definite Announcement Made of Sale of College Site and Removal to York Mills.

Judging from the speeches made yesterday afternoon at St. Andrew's College, on the occasion of the annual presentation of prizes, it is certain that the board of governors have definitely decided to sell their property in Rosedale and build a larger and more modern college at York Mills, Toronto's northern suburb. The first announcement came from Dr. D. Bruce Macdonald, head master of the school, while he was reviewing the work of the college had accomplished in the last year. "We have had 289 students enrolled during the year," said Dr. Macdonald, "and for the last two or three years the upper school has been overtaxed by the attendance." He then intimated that the negotiations for the sale of the present site were practically concluded and that the board of governors had secured a new property of 100 acres at York Mills, 15 minutes' ride from the C. & N. crossing on Yonge street. J. K. Macdonald, chairman of the board of governors, in making a further announcement of the board's plans, said that the students of the lower school would spend the latter years of their college days in the new school. This announcement was greeted by the enthusiastic applause of the lower school students.

Dr. Macdonald, the principal, spoke in detail of the physical training the students had been given in the past year. By means of a special machine several boys who were short had increased their height from two to four inches during the year. "We have proven beyond a doubt that we can make boys grow," said Dr. Macdonald. Twenty-eight cases of deficient heart were found, and of these eight showed a decided improvement. Sixteen cases of weak lungs were given attention, and of 12 cases of spinal curvature three were brought to normal and nine were improved.

Prizes Presented.
Of the numerous boys who went forward to receive prizes, Mr. M. Montgomery, centre "scrim" of the McGill football team, which defeated Varsity on Saturday, met with the greatest reception on the part of the students; Montgomery won the upper school prize in general proficiency, and at the same time stood high in athletics.

The prizes were presented by Lady Gibson, Lady Mortimer Clark, Mrs. E. S. Wilson, Miss Sullivan, Sir Mortimer Clark, J. K. Macdonald, President Falconer, Prof. Alfred Baker, dean of the faculty of arts of Toronto University; Prof. Galbraith, dean of the faculty of applied science; Prof. Wrong, Archdeacon Cody and Corporation Counsel Geary, all of whom gave short addresses. Rev. Dr. Neil opened the exercises and among those on the platform were: Col. A. E. Gooderham, Dr. Hamilton and Messrs. Frank A. Ralph and D. B. Haas.

Would Reclaim
Catfish Pond

Park Commissioner Chambers Has a Scheme to Make Beauty Spot of Stagnant Pool.

Catfish Pond is to be reclaimed and developed into a miniature Muskoka or Thousand Islands Park. If the plan submitted by Parks Commissioner Chambers to the parks committee yesterday is finally adopted.

At a total expenditure of $31,075, the 15 acres of stagnant water will be so dredged as to make 10 acres of water and five of land, including the surrounding small islands dotted here and there throughout the area.

It is proposed to dredge the pond to a depth of four feet, and create the islands with the dredged material, converting the northern portion into an aquatic garden, making connection with Grenadier Pond by a channel east and west, at the foot of the railway embankment. Boat-houses, etc., would be erected on the point opposite the entrance.

It is estimated that the dredging will cost $12,500; the top dressing of the islands which are to be made, $887; four rustic bridges, $500; one road bridge, $2000; one boat-house, $1200; aquatic garden, $1375; total cost of constructing a roadway at the south end of the pond would be $8800.

Husband and Wife
Try to End Lives

Woman Seeks to Drown Herself in Barrel and Out to Batter
Man Brains.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 22. — (Can. Press).—While his wife was attempting to drown herself in a barrel of water in the backyard the husband of an East London family was one of the best to butt out his brains against the brick wall of the house they lived in. The husband was crazy and was taken to the asylum, where he now is. The wife is in Victoria Hospital, suffering from acute hysteria. Both are Londoners and have been here for many years. The woman was one of those upon whom Dr. Barker gave a clinic at the medical convention yesterday. Her husband was later removed to the asylum. The woman will likely recover.

HORTICULTURAL SHOWS
Will Be Held in Government Building at the Exhibition.

H. S. Frankland, honorary president of the Ontario Horticultural Association, attended the board of control yesterday and requested the use of the St. Lawrence Market for the association's annual show, commencing Tuesday, Nov. 12.

Property Commissioner Chisholm stated that letting portions of the market is now a physical impossibility on account of a section of it being now rented.

Mr. Frankland suggested that the board recommend that the Exhibition authorities be permitted to let the government building for the exhibition purposes, also that the board increase the civic grant to $1000 from $600, as by the use of a building in the Exhibition Park a great deal of advertising is entailed in order to induce the people to go so far out.

The association's request was granted.

Psoriasis
All Over Body

Doctors Said Incurable, But Now
There Is No Sign of Disease,
Thanks to Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mrs. Nettie Massey, Concession, Ont., writes:—"For five years I suffered with what three doctors called psoriasis. They could not help me, and one of them told me if anyone offered to guarantee a cure for $50.00 to keep my money, as I could not be cured. The disease spread all over me, even on my face and head, and the itching and burning was hard to bear. I used each box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I am glad to say I am entirely cured, not a sign of a sore to be seen. I can hardly praise this ointment enough."

The soothing, healing influence of Dr. Chase's Ointment is truly wonderful. Eczema, salt rheum, barber's itch, ringworm and scores of such torturing ailments are relieved at once and as certainly cured if the Ointment is used persistently. Mothers find Dr. Chase's Ointment invaluable in preventing and curing the skin troubles of babies, such as chafing, irritations of the skin and baby eczema.

Rules Governing the Contest

The Toronto World Proverb Contest is a test of skill and diligence, designed to encourage thought and research on the part of the young and provide a pleasant mental diversion for everyone.

Every day, for a period of seventy-five (75) days, there will appear in The Toronto Daily and Sunday World, an illustration, cartoon or other representation of a commonly used and well-known English proverb.

The Toronto Daily World will award PRIZES AGGREGATING OVER $5000 IN VALUE to readers of The Daily and Sunday World who send in the correct or nearest correct answers to the entire series of illustrations. The first proverb picture was published in The Daily World, Thursday, October 3rd. The last will be published on Dec. 16th.

The correct answers, to serve as a basis of awards, are being selected according to their common use by the Contest Manager and three representatives of The Daily and Sunday World, and will shortly be placed under seal in a Safety Deposit Vault.

This list of correct answers will remain under seal until called for by the Judges, whose names will be announced in due course, and who will have full control of the examination of the answers and awarding of the prizes.

The correct answers are included in The Toronto World's Book of English Proverbs, which is published as a guide and reference for contestants' use in the contest.

To compete for the prizes, contestants need only to supply the proverbs represented by the illustrations that will appear daily, and send in their answers, at the close of the contest, according to the rules. The person sending in the correct or nearest correct list of answers to the entire series of seventy-five (75) illustrations will be awarded the first prize. The person sending in the second nearest correct list of answers will receive the second prize, etc., etc. Entry may be made any time before the contest is entirely closed. Rules follow:

1. The Toronto World's Proverb Contest is open to all readers of The Daily and Sunday World in Canada, except employees of The Daily and Sunday World and members of their families. Anyone not excepted as above mentioned may enter the contest by simply becoming a regular reader of The Toronto Daily and Sunday World.

2. Contestants must write the Proverbs represented by the illustrations upon the coupon provided therefor and which will appear on Page 2 of The Daily and Sunday World every day during the Contest. Answers may be written with pen, pencil or typewriter, and arranged in any manner to suit the contestant.

3. Each picture represents only one proverb. Where contestants are not certain as to the correct proverb represented, they will be permitted to send five (5) answers (not more) to each proverb illustration. If the correct answer is given, incorrect answers will not count against a contestant.

4. Only one answer may be written upon a single coupon. Extra coupons must be used for additional answers, and all coupons of the same number must be kept together in making up the set.

5. Different members of a family may compete in the contest, but only one prize will be awarded to any one family or household, and only one set of answers will be accepted from any individual contestant.

6. Answers must not be sent in until the last proverb illustration has been printed. After the last picture has been printed, contestants must arrange their coupons in numerical order, fasten them securely together and deliver or mail them in a neat flat package (not folded or rolled), plainly addressed to the Contest Manager, The Toronto World, Toronto, Canada, within the time specified in the following rule.

7. The time of receiving answers of the prizes with this exception: All answers must be delivered at the Office of The Toronto World or by postmark of mailing of not later than midnight, December 15, 1912, twelve days after the last or 75th picture is published.

8. The prizes will be awarded to the nearest sender in the correct or nearest correct list of answers to the entire series of seventy-five (75) Proverb illustrations.

9. In the event of a tie between two (2) or more persons, the contestant sending in the nearest correct list of answers will be declared the winner. Where two (2) or more contestants submit the same number of correct answers upon the same number of coupons the value of the prize or prizes thus tied for will be equally divided among those tying.

10. In making the awards, the judging committee, whose names will be announced in due course, will take into account the similarity and exact wording of the proverb answers as selected by the Contest Manager and three representatives of The Daily and Sunday World, and as contained in The Toronto World's Book of English Proverbs; spelling, wording, punctuation, and the correct reconstruction of the proverbs are the essentials that will be graded.

11. Where a set of answers is securely fastened together the contestant will be permitted to stamp (with rubber stamp) or abbreviate his or her name on the space allotted for same, and omit the full address from the greater majority of the blanks, PROVIDED THAT SUCH FULL NAME AND FULL POST-OFFICE ADDRESS be plainly and distinctly written upon the FIRST SIX AND LAST SIX BLANKS of the set of answers.

12. In sending in the answers at the close of the contest it is imperative that contestants seal all packets containing answers, and if mailed, contestants should exercise great care to see that postage is fully prepaid at the rate, one cent per ounce, or fraction thereof, in Toronto, and two (2) cents per ounce, or fraction thereof, outside of Toronto, as The Toronto World is not bound to pay postage due on any set of answers.

13. All communications or letters of enquiry concerning the Proverb Contest must be addressed to the Contest Manager, Toronto World, Toronto, Canada.
