Ottawa, March 19.—Sir Thomas White may not be ready yet to establish a state bank of issue and rediscount, but he intimated to the house this afternoon that the government would continue its present policy of rediscounting securities for the chartered banks by an issue of national currency. He gave some interesting figures to show how the circulation of Dominion notes has increased during the war in proportion to the increase in the gold reserve.

At the outbreak of war, he stated, the Dominion note circulation amounted to $12,000,000, secured by a gold reserve of $1,000,000. That is, except for hand-to-hand currency like one-dollar and two-dollar bills,
