

NELLIE MCCLUNG SPEAKS HER MIND

Tells the World What She Thinks of Prohibition Fight.

Fresh and wholesome in appearance as usual, Nellie McClung arrived in Toronto yesterday afternoon by the Grand Trunk from St. Catharines, where she had lectured on Saturday night. She is just the latest round of a tour thru the United States and Canada and has spoken almost every night for a month, but declared in a chat with a World representative that she was not feeling in the least bit tired.

"What do you think are the causes of the strike in Winnipeg?" was the first question that came to mind.

"Of course, it is the high cost of living that is driving men to desperation," was the immediate answer of this bright woman from the west.

"Some say it is more a revolution than a strike," was suggested, with a view to finding out what was the opinion of one better acquainted with western matters than are the people of Toronto. But Mrs. McClung said she knew nothing definite as to that phase; she had been away nearly a month and the strike had not affected her home city, Edmonton, in any way.

"How about prohibition; will you speak about that tomorrow night?" Indirectly, was the reply. Prohibition in the west is very satisfactory, but the law will have to be amended.

"Why, are you not able to enforce the law?"

"No, we are not able to enforce the law. There is much bootlegging and the rest, but with all the violations, prohibition has justified itself. I don't think there is a business man anywhere in the west who would like to see the bar, back. Now this is a line along which education should concern itself, said Mrs. McClung, the schools should teach children the real nature of alcohol and the matter of prohibition would then settle itself. Prohibition needs to be backed up by the impact of public opinion. That is how the United States—where they have prohibition—has made it a success. It was taught in the schools there 30 years ago.

Mrs. McClung was reminded that temperance was taught in the schools of Ontario. "Then it ought to be taught with more enthusiasm," was her comment.

GREAT DEBT DUE TO U. E. LOYALISTS

Canadian People Should Hold
Them in Everlasting Remembrance.

That the United Empire Loyalists ought to be held in everlasting remembrance not only because of the principles which they advocated, stood for, but also because Canadian citizens today are largely indebted to them for those richer blessings and greater privileges now enjoyed, was the tribute which Rev. Canon Macnab paid yesterday in St. Alban's Cathedral on the occasion of the annual church festival of members of the society in Toronto. He declared that their Loyalist forefathers of 135 years ago laid the foundation of this Canada and laid it well.

"Our colonial forefathers," he said, "were not blind to the injustices which in many ways were meted out to them by the home government thru the prejudices and ignorance of crown officials, but they could not see sufficient grievances to justify anything like rebellion or unnecessary war with all its terrible consequences. They desired to have redress and reform by peaceful arbitration and would undoubtedly have secured these reforms in time were it not for the hot-headed indifference of the colonial officials. That independence was obtained in 1776 thru the disruption, or breaking away of those British colonies overseas. Those who stood for the unity of the empire were driven from their homes, ruthlessly banished from the land of their birth and adoption. Land and water will never mix, so neither could those loyalists who remained to live with those who were determined to sever connection with the British empire. The descendants and posterity, honor them for their heroic action and will keep forever green the memory of their faithfulness."

EXPRESS COMPANIES ADOPT SHORT DAY

The secretary of the Express Traffic Association of Canada has issued the following statement to secretaries of boards of trade and to shippers asking their co-operation in arranging deliveries so that employees may be able to enjoy better working conditions:

"For the purpose of improving the working conditions of their employees and to accommodate what seems to be the general public sentiment, the express companies have adopted the eight-hour day. To give the employees the benefit of the shorter day, it has been necessary to rearrange the hours for collection and delivery service."

"From June 1, 1919, collection and delivery by the companies' vehicles will be confined to the hours between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Depot offices where night staffs are maintained will be open for the delivery of incoming shipments to consignees calling for them, and for the receipt of outgoing shipments, which are not ready when last vehicle call is made."

"Shippers who receive regular calls from express companies should arrange to have their packages ready at least one hour earlier than at present."

"Shippers who do not receive regular calls and by whom requests for service are telephoned to the express companies, should telephone calls as early in the day as possible."

"We hope for the co-operation of your association and its members in our efforts to give an efficient service."

PLAYS' PICTURES AND MUSIC.

"Nothing But the Truth."

The third week of Edward H. Robinson's summer season at the Royal Alexandra, commencing tonight, will be devoted entirely to "Nothing But the Truth," the James Montgomery farce, which ran for one solid year in New York. For the local presentation Mr. Robinson will be seen in the part of Bob Bennett, the young stockbroker who backs his claim of being able to tell nothing but the truth for twenty-four hours, with a ten thousand dollar bet. The trials and tribulations he undergoes, the havoc he creates with his partner's home life and business interests in order to win the bet gives an audience two and a half hours of solid laughter. The other members of the company have been cast to the best advantage, and a scenic production has been given the attraction that will be equal to that of the road production which was seen here. Matinees will be as usual on Wednesday and Saturday.

"Mickey" at The Grand.

Commencing with a matinee this afternoon "Mickey," the most notable pictured drama of the year, opens a brief engagement at the Grand Opera House. This is the screen story of a young man who goes to the cities of the United States, and is one of the photodramas that people want to see again and again. "Mickey" is the name of a little mountain girl who, after a thrilling horse race, is taken between an automobile and locomotive, each of which in itself would make for the success of any picture play. During the engagement at the Grand, "Mickey" will be presented twice daily, afternoons at 2:15 and evenings at 8:15.

At Shea's This Week.

Headline honors are awarded to Alvin Brooks, a favorite with Sheagorers, in the bill at Shea's this week. He will present a humorous tragedy in four episodes entitled "Dollars and Sense." Designated as the world's greatest clown, Toto will appear in an offering entitled "Toto in Kewpie Land." Mrs. Chilton, the American prima donna, will be heard in a number of excellent selections, and "George" Price will present "A Little of Everything." The musical program of the evening will be enhanced by the appearance of three Tivoli girls as well as Elkins and Elkins. A satire on Greenwich Village and the modern life of the city will be presented by the La Monte Trio performing remarkable stunts. The Pathe News showing the latest world's events will be shown in the afternoon.

At Loew's This Week.

"The Mimic World of 1919," the wonder of the season, features this week's attractions at Loew's Theatre and Winter Garden. A complete show in itself, it is offered in conjunction with the usual program of vaudeville and photoplay features. The latter presents Charles Ray in "Greased Lightning." "The Mimic World" is a production of all with everything that is new to make the stage worthy, white, and introduces twenty of the cutest little girls ever seen on any stage. There are only three men in the act, all of whom are lovely and charming. The show has a number of stars, all of which offer impersonations of famous Broadway stars. Other entertaining features of the bill embrace Hollinger, the tramp artist; Cecil and Mack, laugh-provokers; Frank Morrell, the golden-voiced singer and other attractive vaudeville turns. The "Mimic World" cartoons and Loew's World-Week Weekly will also be shown.

Hippodrome This Week.

Patrons of Shea's Hippodrome always open their eyes when Tom Mix appears on the screen. This week he will be seen in the immense William Fox production "Fighting for Gold," and it is interesting to see how he found it in a woman's heart. In the vaudeville performance there will be seen Evelyn and Marguerite, two beautiful girls who present some novelties. Two singing boys are McDermott and Heagney. They sing their own songs. Herbert Russell and Co. have a comedy sketch entitled "Mrs. Ritter Appears." The comedy sketch is presented "At the Station." A favorite on any stage is Lou Skuce, the well known cartoonist, who will appear with a number of new and original cartoons. The Thomas Trio also comes.

At the Gayety.

Ben Pien, chief, Ralph Rockaway, Helen McClain, Eddie Jordan, Thelma Seaville, Tillie Storke, Perrin G. Somers and Gene Beauty compose the galaxy of talent which will be seen all this week with "The Hip! Hip! Hooyay Girls" at the Gayety Theatre. They all find an exceptional opportunity for their talents in the running two-act vehicle "Protons Abroad," which has been provided by Darl McBoyle, and which is a book particularly well adapted to the moods of a burlesque audience. Its comedy situations are unusual, the dialog is sparkling, and the repartee is bright and brisk.

At Star Theatre.

"Spending a Million," and "Out West" are the two musical burlesques to be presented this week at the Star by the Victory Girls. This show has a company of thirty-two people, twelve of whom are principals. The show was staged by Brad Sutton, who has put on several big burlesque shows now playing at leading Broadway theatres. Sutton plays character parts in the show, along with Ed Johnston, a well known performer. Miss Rockwell, Dolly Sweet, Josephine Sabel, Jeannette Buckley and a chorus of twenty good-looking and well-costumed chorus girls will be seen in sixteen bright musical numbers, selected by Miss Rockwell.

At the Allen.

"For Better, for Worse," an intensely gripping film, the latest production of one of the greatest producers, Cecil B. De Mille, is the main attraction at the Allen this week. Considered to be the best work of Mr. Cecil B. De Mille, "For Better, for Worse," in this picture he has created another of his strangely intimate dramas, the bitter-ironic that makes a woman's life. The cast is an exceptional one and includes eight favorite stars: Elliott Dexter, Ronald Sweeney, Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Tom Forman, Raymond Hatton, Winter Hall and Sylvia Ashton. Besides the big feature attraction, the interesting musical program has been arranged, Luigi Romanelli, director of the Allen concert orchestra and Toronto's favorite violinist, will play a number of popular songs, and many new selections will be played by the Allen orchestra. A new comedy, "Sennett comedy and the latest Allen's Weekly, depicting current events, will complete a very attractive bill.

Mary Pickford at the Regent.

Mary Pickford brings to the screen of the Regent this week the delightful story of Jean Webster, "Daddy Long Legs," which has won such an enviable reputation, will be heard again and the famous Regent orchestra will render in addition to the musical accompaniment for the feature, some splendid selections. A comedy, the News Weekly and a Burton Holmes Travelogue will also be shown.

Dorothy Dalton at Strand.

Can you imagine Dorothy Dalton in a better picture than "Hard Bolled" or "Extravagance"? Perhaps you can, but you will agree that she has one other picture that is a real "break," which is playing at the Strand Theatre today. Tuesday and Wednesday, it is a rattling good modern story, sparkling with humor, fun, and is Dorothy a homebreaker? Well, it wouldn't do to tell and spoil the story. In the picture the radiant star wears clothes that vary from men's overalls to a $3,000 evening gown. The Pathe English Gazette and Canadian scenes are among the extras on a splendid bill.

Peggy Hyland at Madison.

Versatile Peggy Hyland will be seen at the Madison this week, tomorrow and Wednesday, in her new William Fox vehicle, "The Girl With No Regrets." Her role is that of a young girl who, after a criminal net, passes thru the crucible of destruction, and finally wins happiness and love.

Col. Bishop's Lecture.

As announced in the advertisement for the plan for "Air Fighting in Flanders," to be given in connection with the official reception of Mayor Church's address of welcome tomorrow evening, will be open today at the Massey Hall box office.

No better proof can be found that Edward H. Robinson is trying to give his many patrons the best in theatricals than in the announcement that, commencing next Monday evening, he will present the eminent English and American star, Miss Estelle Carey, to the many patrons of the local companies. The "Multi and the Girl" is his production, "Polly With a Plan" the celebrated David Belasco comedy which will be produced for the first time by the new company. Seats will be placed on sale Thursday morning.

TRY A WAR HERO AT KINNEL COURT

Pte. Bartista Bertuccio is Found Not Guilty of Charges Made.

Reuter Cable.

London, May 25.—"He was one of the first who volunteered to go out and put up a double apron wire fence 30 yards in front of our first line," said Sgt. Major Lister, describing a trench incident early in 1915, in giving evidence on Saturday before the Kinnel court-martial on behalf of Pte. Bartista Bertuccio of Victoria, B. C., who pleaded not guilty to charges of joining in the mutiny. The case arose out of the disturbance at Camp 20, when three men were killed. Pte. Bertuccio was identified as among the rioters.

The defence was that the accused was drunk at the time and did not arrive on the scene until the disturbance was over, when he went to the trench out of drunken curiosity. Pte. Bertuccio was found not guilty.

HOME-MADE BREAD

Home bread-making reduces the high cost of living by lessening the amount of expensive meats required to supply the necessary nourishment to the body. The increased nutritious value of bread made in the home with ROYAL YEAST CAKES should be sufficient incentive to the thoughtful housewife to give this important food item the attention to which it is justly entitled. Bread made with Royal Yeast will keep fresh and moist longer than that made with any other.

PROMINENT PHYSICIAN DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Dr. Arthur D. Sinclair, one of the most prominent of the younger physicians and surgeons of Toronto, died from double pneumonia early Sunday morning at his residence, 290 Danforth avenue.

His vitality, weakened by incessant labor for the sick in the recent influenza and pneumonia epidemic, was not sufficient to cope with the disease and he fell a victim after an illness of nearly two weeks.

Dr. Sinclair was the eldest son of the late Dr. John Sinclair, of St. Marys, Ontario, and was born 36 years ago. He had the distinction of holding medical degrees in allopathy from Syracuse University, in homeopathy from the University of Minnesota, and in osteopathy from Los Angeles University.

Besides his professional school training, he had practiced hospital preparation in Minneapolis, Brooklyn and Boston. He also held the degree of Bachelor of Arts from the University of Minnesota.

Dr. Sinclair came to Toronto in 1911 and was associated for a time with Dr. R. B. Henderson, but for the last five years has been living on Danforth avenue, where his host of friends were plunged into mourning by his untimely death. It was believed by all who knew him that he was on the threshold of a great career in surgery.

Besides the immediate family, consisting of his wife and a little four-year-old daughter, he leaves two brothers, George M. Sinclair and John Sinclair, both of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and two sisters, Miss E. D. Sinclair, of Toronto, and Miss Jean Sinclair, of Grand Forks, North Dakota. The burial will be in the family vault in St. Marys.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips.

His Honor the Lieut.-Governor, Lady Hendrie, Miss Hendrie, and Col. Owen left for Halifax on Saturday night in his honor's private car. At the Woodbine on Saturday afternoon time seemed to have turned backward about seven years in its flight, and but for the number of wounded soldiers enjoying the events, and the airplane skimming above the course, one could have almost forgotten the many losses and changes in the gay crowd which filled the boxes and strided about the lawn. The dresses worn were nearly all brand new, and very smart, about ninety-nine and forty-four hundred, being navy blue, principally braided with black silk, and almost all worn with fox fur of one color or another, the costly silks being pointed out easily the most popular, while the hats seemed chiefly black and dripping with glycerine ostrich feathers, a few of transparent white georgette crepe breaking the monotony. One of the prettiest of the white hats was worn by Miss Enid Hendrie, who looked very bright and happy in her frock of dark blue and black, black hat with blue ribbon and a bouquet of magnificent orchids.
