SIR HENRY'S PROMOTION DISTURBS MILITARY MEN

Prospects of Dividing Queen's Own Into Two Battalions With Commanding Officers Isn't Liked.

The proposition to divide the Queen's Own Rifles into a regiment of two battalions, giving to Lieut.-Col. Sir H. M. Pellatt the rank of colonel, and causing the creation of two lieutenant-colonels to command the two battalions, looks nice enough to the civilian, but is being viewed in a far different manner by some military men, at least. There is, in fact, in some quarters, a decided objection to the promotion of Sir Henry, not because his services to the regiment, and indirectly to his country, are not recognized as giving him claim to some distinction, but because, as one officer points out, "the promotion would have no precedent in the annals of the British army, let alone in the records of the Canadian militia."

In the army there are full colonels and honorary colonels over territorial regiments, which have more than one battalion, but the positions are only honorary. Promotion in the army is in every case a reward of merit, and it is not generally considered that even the splendidly rapid increase in numbers like that which has marked the Queen's Own Rifles, Lieut.-Col. Pellatt's tenure, is yet sufficient reason for a promotion which will place Sir Henry above all the other territorial regiments in the Canadian militia, and next in command to Gen. Otter.

The affair indeed to the minds of most military men appears to be considerably mixed.

EVIDENCE SHOWS CRIME.

New York Grand Jury Told To Probe Insurance Matters.

New York, April 3.—A grand jury, at the empaneling of the April grand jury, in the court of general sessions, instructed the jury to take up insurance matters, although District Attorney Jerome has asked for a special grand jury in May for that purpose. The recorder said that there was reasonable ground for the belief that there is available evidence showing that crime had been committed in the insurance matter. He instructed the grand jury that it is their duty to call the district attorney before them to produce any evidence he may have or may have knowledge of concerning insurance matters should they decide to take up the matter.

"You must presume that the presentment of the last grand jury spoke the truth," he said, "and also that the district attorney is telling the truth when he said that in his opinion certain evidence was available."

FEWER TRAINS TO SAVE COAL

Pere Marquette System Is Adopting That Recourse.

St. Thomas, April 1.—(Special.)—Judge Harmon, receiver of the Pere Marquette Railway, has issued the following circular:

The change of time in effect April 1, discontinuing some of our passenger trains, is a temporary measure, made necessary on account of the coal strike. To continue our regular operation the supply of coal on hand would be exhausted in about 40 days. It is, therefore, necessary, in the judgment of the officers of the company, to reduce the service in order to give our patrons some service in the event of a prolonged strike.

Hereafter, the local trains out of this city will run on alternate days, and the same order will apply at Windsor. Switching engines at Chatham, Walkerville and London will also be dispensed with so far as possible. By these changes it is expected that from 40 to 50 tons of coal per day will be saved.

Ottawa Coal Prices Up.

Ottawa coal dealers are not taking any chances on the possibility of a coal strike being averted, and have decided to increase prices from $7.25 to $8 per ton. The reason assigned is to protect against the possibility of a strike by greedy people and from the fact that only one ton will be sold at a time.

CHEATED BY COUNTERFEITS.

Asks for Protection of the Public. Against Patent Substitution. The Slater Shoe Company claim that many forms of substitution are practised in some towns and cities by shoe dealers who cannot get the Slater Shoe in Canada. There is only one Slater Shoe Store in each city. The Slater Shoe is easily recognized by the Slater trademark. The president of the Slater Shoe Company in this issue offers a reward for the detection of any dealer who knowingly substitutes a cheap shoe for the Slater Shoe. The law on this point is very explicit. The warrant issued by the Slater Shoe Company will be followed by a vigorous prosecution in some of the cities. We cannot afford to have our patrons cheated by clumsy counterfeits," said Mr. Slater.

WATERTANK FALLS THRU ROOF GIRL KILLED, OTHERS HURT

Bad Accident in Montreal Warehouse—Second of Its Kind in a Week.

Montreal, April 3.—A 12,000 gallon water-tank on the building of Bolvin, Wilson & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, St. Paul-street, crashed thru the roof this morning and killed a girl named Ross, an employee of the firm mentioned, and injured several other employees.

The girl was working on the fourth story of the building and was caught by the heavy tank and carried thru the side wall and plunged with the tank to the ground.

She was buried under the debris, and the portion of her body could be seen she was not extricated for several hours. The body was badly mangled.

The 30,000 gallons of water in the tank did great damage to stock. Last week a similar accident happened at the Dillies Packing Company's factory, on the canal, a 30,000 tank breaking thru the roof, falling sideways, and carrying away part of the wall. It caused over $5000 damage.

DEFENCES UNDERMANNED.

United States Would Be in Bad Shape to Resist Attack.

Washington, April 3.—Some surprising facts regarding the inadequacy of the coast artillery force was brought out in the recent examination of Secretary of War Taft by the senate committee on military affairs.

The secretary presented data showing that the present authorized force of coast artillery is sufficient to provide one relief for only 34 per cent. of the guns, mines, range-finders, etc., now actually installed or authorized for the coast defences of the United States.

This is exclusive of reserves, supports, etc. It was also shown that there is an average shortage of more than 30 per cent. in the coast artillery companies, and that due to this shortage less than 25 per cent. of the defences can be actually manned by troops now in service.

In case of a sudden outbreak of war, 75 per cent. of the coast defences would have to remain idle until such time as volunteers or raw recruits would be trained to handle the high-power guns, mines and position finding system, etc.

This great shortage is said to be due to the fact that the pay is not sufficient to induce men to enlist for the coast artillery.

To obviate these conditions, Representative Hull of Iowa has presented a bill in congress which carries increased pay for certain grades in the coast artillery which require technical skill and increases the authorized strength by about 5000 officers and men. This bill, if passed, will increase the authorized strength to 45 per cent. of that required for one relief.

SISTER DYING, SHE SUICIDES
Aged Spinster Could Not Bear the Pain of Parting.
New York, April 3.—The bodies of two elderly women, believed to be Miss Elina Fransfort, and her sister, Clara, formerly of Ialip, L.L., were found in their rooms in a furnished apartment house in East 18th-street to-day. Both were asphyxiated by gas. The lifeless body of Miss Clara sat upright in a chair, with the rubber tube from a gas jet wound around her neck and the end of it in her mouth. Her sister was in bed, and life was not entirely extinct when found, she died soon afterward. Both were more than 60 years old.
Dr. Carl Theobald, physician of the women, said that he called on them yesterday and informed Elina that her sister Clara, who was very ill, had only a few hours to live. The police believe that Elina, in her grief, killed herself while watching at her sister's bedside. Her death came a short time before that of the sick sister.
