LOOKS LIKE MURDER.

Good Reason for Inquest, Says Doctor Who Examined Body.

"There is good reason for an inquest. I believe that the child was born alive." This was the extent of information that could be gleaned from Dr. G. Silverthorn, who performed a post-mortem on the body of the infant found Monday in the university ravine, yesterday.

"Were there marks of violence," asked The World.

"I can say no more" was the reply.

The inquest on the body was opened at the morgue last night. The jury was chosen and the evidence of the policeman who was called to the scene at the finding of the body taken, then the proceedings were adjourned for two weeks, that further investigation might be made.

Coroner L. Pickering, who is conducting the inquest, has given an order for the burial.

FOLLOWED ASSAILANTS ON CAR

Charles Armstrong Has Long Hunt for Policeman.

Charles Armstrong, 79 Sherbourne-street, who is lodged in No. 3 police station, charged with being drunk took with him William Smith, 457 East King-street; James Bailey, 126 Eastern-avenue, and William Foster, 33 Sutton-avenue, charging them with robbing him of $9 in a room in the Princess Hotel, King and Princess-streets. Armstrong followed the men from the hotel on a car in search of a policeman and, crossing King and Yonge-streets, where P. C. Reburn was on duty, hailed P. C. Davis at the corner of John-street.

When Foster was searched $3 was found in his sock, which he said his mother gave him. His mother said otherwise.

PROFESSIONAL ADVICE VS. PATIENT'S INTERESTS

A Remarkable Case Where a Patient's Interests, Welfare and Life Are Being Sacrificed.

Toronto has a somewhat prominent man (there may be many others in the same condition) who is dying of what his attendant physicians call consumption. His friends will probably be called on to attend his funeral in the very near future. His family have had a constitutional tendency to lung trouble. A brother and a sister died of lung trouble. A brother and another sister were in the grip of the same trouble. They used Psychine and are strong and hearty to-day. They say Psychine cured them and others whom they know, and strongly advise their brother, whom the doctors have pronounced as beyond hope, to use it, but his physician, with a high regard for "professional etiquet," prefers to see his patient lie there and die, rather than be guilty of countenancing a proprietary medicine—one that has cured more people of consumption and all its antecedent ills,such as stubborn coughs, colds, bronchitis, catarrh, la grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, chills, night sweats, stomach troubles, wasting diseases, and run-down conditions than a whole hosts of physicians combined.

The question arises with every one who now has, or in the future may have, friends travelling rapidly toward "the dark valley," whom the doctor cannot save. Are they going to allow "professional etiquet" to stand between their friends and reasonably certain, or at any rate very possible recovery? How different the course of this Toronto doctor who, it may be said, is among the somewhat obscure and inexperienced class, to that of one of the greatest throat and lung specialists on this continent, who, when consulted in a recent severe case of lung trouble, advised the continued use of Psychine, as the best medicine that could be given, with the result: a most brilliant recovery. It can be obtained at all druggists at 50c and $1 per bottle, or Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, 179 King Street West, Toronto.

"I herewith send my photo and testimonial for Psychine. I was given up 16 years ago as an incurable consumptive by Prof. Lyman, Rush Medical College, Chicago. I suffered several years with lung trouble, until I heard of Psychine, and through it I was restored to perfect health, which I have enjoyed for the past ten years. My sickness began first with catarrh of the head. I readily advise catarrh, bronchitis and lung sufferers to take Psychine."

CONTROLLERS WAKE UP AND WRITE AYLESWORTH

Will Watch the Remaining Course of the Hamilton Radial Bill at Ottawa.

"The whole bill is practically dead. The promoters have abandoned the clauses objectionable to Toronto. We will watch what is left of the bill to the end of the session."

This was the reasuring telegram received by Mayor Coatsworth yesterday afternoon, in reply to a wire sent earlier in the day, thanking the local members for the "splendid fight put up in connection with the Hamilton radial bill," and asking whether the city could lend assistance, and if the bill were likely to come up again in committee or otherwise.

At the morning meeting of the board of control, it was decided that the city should bestir itself in the matter, and the telegram above mentioned, and a letter to Hon. A. B. Aylesworth were the results. The letter reads:

"The board of control have requested me to write you in regard to the Hamilton Radial Railway bill, and, upon the suggestion of our corporation counsel, Mr. Fullerton, to point out to you particularly that the City of Toronto has never objected to passengers being brought within its limits, and, as one of the members suggested, being taken over by the Toronto Railway Company and carried to their destination. What they always did fight against, was to prevent freight being brought here and handled on the city's streets without the consent of the municipality. This, they think, would be against the best interests of the city. They express the hope and strong confidence that you will see that nothing is passed in the bill which is contrary to the interests of the City of Toronto."

Danger is Past.

The mayor also wrote a letter to the South Toronto member conveying the thanks of the board of control and city to the local members, who had "earned for themselves great distinction as defenders of our rights."

The mayor's opinion is, that in future, there will be no great danger of works, which are purely local, being declared to be for the general advantage of Canada. While convinced that the railways should be run into the city, the terms must be fair.

Commissioner of Industries Thompson is disappointed over the withdrawal by the King Radiator Co. of their plan for establishing their industry in the Ashbridge's Bay district. The terms of the agreement prepared by the city, and calling for considerable expenditure by the company in improving the land, proved too onerous, and the industry will locate on St. Helen's-avenue. Between 200 and 300 men are to be employed.

Mr. Thompson yesterday went over the ground at the foot of Cherry-street with railway officials to make arrangements for the siding to be laid down.

Principal Hagarty of Harbord Collegiate has advised the mayor, that, at a meeting of the pupils held yesterday afternoon, it was decided that a subscription list should be opened in the school for contribution toward the Longboat education fund.

To Extend Harbord Street.

The city may take its first step toward availing itself of the new legislation under which it has power to force street extensions by seeking to have Harbord-street continued to Ossington-avenue.

The board of control yesterday, on motion of Controller Hocken, decided to have a report from the assessment commissioner and the city engineer as to whether the extension was in the public interest. A report will also be had from the city solicitor explicitly defining the city's powers in the matter.

Hearty approval was given the request of the Welland board of trade that the city should co-operate in a movement to prevent the exportation of natural gas.

Chief Thompson of the fire department has written the fire and light committee, withdrawing the application for an increase in his salary, and that of Deputy Chief Noble. It is understood that the action is due to the opposition created by the fact that the increases of two years ago, were granted on the pledge that no further advance would be asked for three years.

A five-storey brick warehouse, to cost $70,000, is to be erected by D. McCall & Co., on Wellington-street, near York-street.

HARBORD TO CONTRIBUTE.

To Longboat Education Fund—Principal Hagarty's Address.

At the close of school yesterday afternoon Principal Hagarty called the pupils of the Harbard Collegiate together and addressed them on the victory of Longboat, its significance as teaching manly endeavor and a respect for the old Greek idea of courage, and endurance. He also dwelt on the international aspect of the friendly treatment accorded Longobat by the Boston people, and drew a moral emphasizing Canadian hardihood and independence of spirit, coupled with friendliness for our neighbors across the line.

The pupils responded most enthusiastically, and one of the senior pupils, Alex. Marshall, moved, seconded by H. Orr, that the school take up a subscription towards educating Thomas Longobat. This was agreed to amidst cheers for the teacher and for Petch, the ex-pupil of Jarvis-street Collegiate, who came in sixth.

Mr. Tapscott, president of the school athletic association, was in the chair, and the whole staff was on the platform.

In this connection it is worthy of mention that H. Duke of Harbord broke the record for pole vaulting at the Y.M.C.A. Saturday evening last.

TORONTO MEN GET PATENTS.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—(Special.)—It is officially reported by the United States patent office that Fred E. Martin, inventor, Oakville, Ontario, has transferred one third of his patent, number 850,239, on boat launching and stowing apparatus, granted him by the United States last Tuesday, to William John Kivell of Toronto, remaining two-thirds to Chas. H. Riches, Toronto.

York Ginger Ale

is made of ideally pure York Springs Water and sugar, with pure vegetable aromatics and Jamaica ginger-root. There is hardly another drink so allaying of thirst; and it is a mild and healthful stimulant.

The quality of the ginger and aromatics used accounts for the spicy pungency, the fragrant aroma, and the delicious flavor of York Ginger Ale. The purity of all the ingredients accounts for the good this beverage does people with weak stomachs.

But all ginger ale doesn't owe its flavor to ginger root. Too much of it gets pungency from cayenne pepper (capsicum).

Too much of it has the harsh, corrosiveness of vitriol, instead of the healthful acidity of lemons.

Some ginger ale is sickly-sweet with saccharine. The use of saccharine is prohibited in those countries where pure-food laws are enforced. Pure sugar, of the best quality, sweetens York Ginger Ale.

You run risks when you drink cayenne-peppered ginger ale—and the more of it you drink, the dryer your throat gets. It burns, not refreshes.

You run risks when you drink ginger ale dosed with glucose or sugar-substitutes,—upsets your digestion, affects your kidneys.

But you run no risk when you drink this pure, honest, wholesome York Ginger Ale, though you pay about the same for it as for spurious ginger ale. Look at the label so you can be sure you get the purest, most aromatic, most refreshing ginger ale made. It is safe to drink, inexpensive to buy, sure to satisfy, when it is labelled

HEART TROUBLE CURED

In the rush, hurry and worry of modern times, we overwork the heart. Is it any wonder then that there comes a breakdown of this wonderful little engine, when such a continued strain is placed upon it day after day. There are many forms of heart trouble and the slightest derangement of this important organ is extremely dangerous. To strengthen the weak heart it is necessary to use a remedy that will act upon the heart tissue, restore and revitalize it and at the same time tone up and invigorate the nervous system, we have such a combination in

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. Ella Dingman, Morganston, Ont., writes of her experience with them: "It is with the greatest of pleasure that I recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled for a long time with my heart; had weak and dizzy spells, could not rest at night, and I would have to sit up in bed the greater part of some nights, and it was absolutely impossible for me to lie on my left side. At last I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and they did me so much good I got another box and they effected a complete cure. I have not been troubled with my heart since."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WERE POLICE ROUGH?

Young Man Says Russian Methods Were Used.

Accusing the city police of Russian methods in handling the crowds who gathered to witness the Longboat procession last night, a young man giving the name of Browning, made complaint at No. 1 police station. To The World the young man said that his name was Brown, and his father a Montreal lawyer. He was bleeding from a cut at the back of his head, which he said was the result of a blow from the loaded whip of a mounted policeman at Queen and Victoria-streets. He says he will complain to the police commissioners.

Another lad received a blow from a baton at the city hall crush.

MANY CHARGES DROPPED IN CASE AGAINST BRICK

Preliminary Investigation at Perth Yesterday—Over $50,000 is Accounted For.

PERTH, April 23.—Special.)—The preliminary investigation into the several charges made by the Henry K. Wampole Co. against the former manager, H. W. Brick, for misappropriating sums of money from the company, came up this morning before Magistrate Taylor. J. A. Stewart appeared for the company, and J. E. Jones and McDougal of Toronto represented Brick.

Mr. Maher, the bookkeeper of the Wampole Company in Canada, was examined by Mr. Stewart relative to several cheques issued and taken as the first item in the information. Mr. Stewart took each cheque and proceeded to bring from the witness that it was made payable to the Henry K. Wampole Company and endorsed by H. W. Brick, who had the power of attorney. In cross-examination Mr. Maher admitted that the cheques were entered in a special account opened with the late H. K. Wampole personally, and the inference was that Wampole had received the benefit. Specifying a certain amount, a cheque for $2500, witness admitted that it was quite plain that the money went to the H. K. Wampole Co. Had he known of the cheque he never would have laid the information with reference to this item. Mr. Jones contended that he had shown clearly the proper disposal of the cheques, except with reference to one, and he asked that a letter sent to the Toronto agent be produced, which would clear up this one. Counsel for the company promised to produce the same.

To Mr. Stewart witness admitted that there were no signatures on the backs of the cheques, altho each contained the usual stamp endorsement, and he had no personal knowledge as to what disposal was made of the funds. These cheques were charged in the company's books to Wampole, personally. The account was opened on instructions of Brick.

Mr. Stewart took up an item of cheques dated May 14. Witness swore that there was nothing on the company's books which would lead him to not believe that the money represented in these cheques went to the intended persons, except the similarity of amounts.

There were in the neighborhood of 175 charges laid in the information, aggregating about $97,000, but during the afternoon about 77 of these were struck out, which represented upwards of $50,000, while the counsel for the defence claims there are sufficient duplicates to bring those amounts up to over $70,000.

At the conclusion of the examination, the case is to be brought at once before the county judge, who will take Mr. Brick's election to be tried without a jury at a date to be fixed for the convenience of the crown.

Two cases are to stand for eight days and in the meantime Mr. Stewart, solicitor for the company, is to communicate with Philadelphia with a view to ascertaining whether the Philadelphia members of the firm desire to offer a refutation of Mr. Brick's explanation of the various matters.

If the explanations are not sufficient it will be for Wampole Co. to consider whether they will be at the expense of asking Mr. Brick and Mr. Douglas to attend at Philadelphia to make an explanation in person. In the meantime the case will be adjourned from time to time.

E. F. B. Johnston, K.C., has been retained to act for Mr. Brick.
