HUTELKEEPER ARRESTED

Corridor of Jail at Hamilton Wil Be Improved to Keep Death Watch on Sunfield.

HAMILTON, Oct. 21.-(Special.)-P. M. Barker, proprietor of the Flamboro Hotel, was arrested this evening, charged with aggravated assault. J. J. Aggard was the complainant. His story is that the offence was committed in the hotel barroom Saturday night, and he says he was attacked by the hotelman with a knife. He was cut on the head and on the arm, which was put up to protect his head. The markets committee this evening decided to have the city hall boilers tested to see if they were strong enough to allow the installation of a smoke consumer. The contract of fixing up the jail corridors so that a better watch may be kept on Jake Sun-field; also the erection of an iron stairway, was given to R. G. Olmstead at $295. A resolution was passed upholding the authority of Market Clerk Hill.
