Municipal Elections at Long Branch, C. D. Daniels Was the Choice for Mayor.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR A CHURCH

Sunday School Picnics and Games Daily Prominent Feature at Centre Island.

Long Branch, July 11.—The municipa elections for the summer resort of Long Branch were held to-night in the pavilion. Rev. Norman Russell acted as returning officer and Mr. F. B. Allen as deputy re turning officer.

The following were declared elected Mayor: C. D. Daniels. Aldermen. W. H. Haslitt, R. H. Butt, George Perry, E. Money Nield, W. B. Bayley and E. P. McCor-

Mayor-elect Daniels, who was received with loud cheers, thanked his supporters for the way in which they had turned out to vote for him, and said he should strive to do his duty and see that the aldermen did theirs. If they did not he elected he should fill all his pre-election promises, even to the ice water.

Alderman Butt, who made a speech from the shoulders of two of his supporters, said that "he wouldn't do a thing."

Alderman Neild was received with cries of "He's all right and he don't deserve it that's what you get for booding sto."

it, that's what you get for boodling, etc."
W. B. Bayley's speech was drowned in cries of "Boodle,"
At the close of the after meeting, Mayor elect Daniels was hustled on the she adiness, and in this coach, hauled by reaths, he was taken home, where he made a felicitous address to the crowd of effthusiastic followers from the verandah steps. The inauguration ceres will take place next week.

A sub-committee, consisting of J. J. Follett, W. J. Hazlitt and C. D. Daniel, Grig, architects, have been employed.

The first cottagers' hop of the season will be held to-morrow night in the pavilion. Mr. Hodgins will furnish music. A junior team from Long Branch play A junior team from Long Branch played an exciting match with the New Toronto baseball juniors to-night. Long Branch won by a score of 13 to 5.
