MUTT AND JEFF

BUT MUTT, THE ONLY STUFF I GOT IS THE QUART OF PRE-WAR SCOTCH. SIR SID, GAVE ME, AND IT'S LOCKED UP IN MY SAFE AS MEDICINE ONLY.

BUT THEY'LL SEARCH YOUR SAFE AFTER JULY FIRST AND WHEN THEY FIND IT, BLOODY FOR YOU, YOU HAD BETTER BURY IT IN THE BACK YARD AND PLAY SAFE!

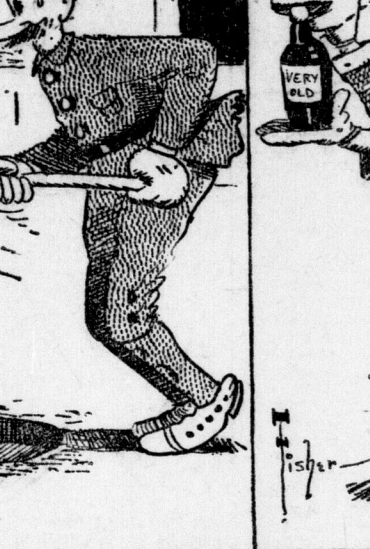

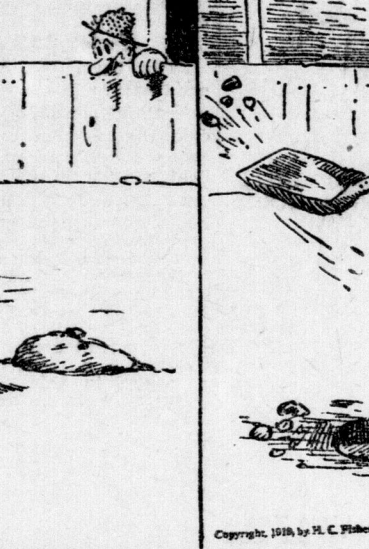

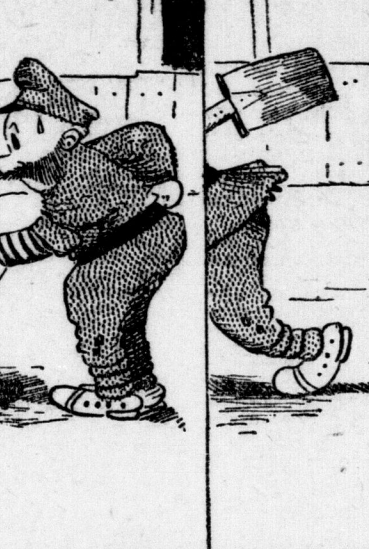

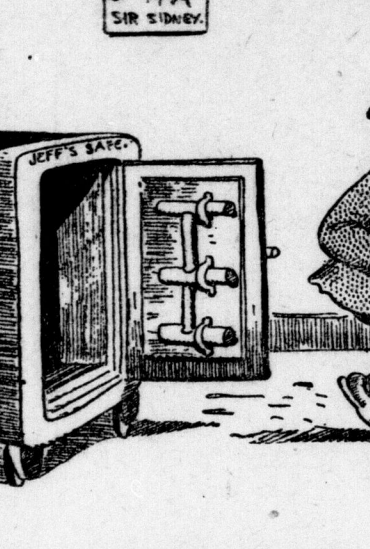

IT WAS NICE OF MUTT TO TIP ME OFF. IF A SECRET SERVICE GUY FOUND THIS IN MY SAFE THEY'D THROW ME IN THE HOUSE GOW!

I'LL BURY IT HERE AND WHEN I GET SICK I'LL COME OUT AND DIG IT UP!

SAFETY FIRST IS MY SYSTEM!

COME TO PAPA!

NOW IF I ONLY HAD A CORKSCREW I'D BE SICK!

HENRION STOPS WOLVES AFTER OKRIE IS DERRICKED

London Makes It Nine in a Row by Winning Sunday Contest at Bay City by Score of 7 to 5.

(Special to The Advertiser.)
BAY CITY, Mich., July 13.—"Dad" Stewart and his rejuvenated Tecumseh tailenders continued their winning streak today, making it nine straight victories by turning back the Wolves 7 to 5, after the locals had tied the count at five all in the seventh inning. Okrie, London's star southpaw, had the Wolf pack guessing for the first five innings, but in the sixth they got to his offerings for two runs, and continued their extra base hitting in the seventh, tying the count. Okrie then gave way to Henrion, who set the locals down without a hit for the rest of the game.

London Scores 5 in Second.
Thomson, also a left-hander, started for the Wolves, but was ineffective and was jerked in the second with two runs in, two men on bases, and none out. Campbell, who succeeded him, had the Cockneys eating out of his hand after he settled down, although the runs counted before the side was retired in the second. But in the eighth frame the visitors discovered that Campbell could not field a bunt to save his life, and right there they went out and won the game, tying it up with two counters on two hits, a couple of bunts and a walk.

A Double Play Stops a Run.
London threatened to add a few more runs in the ninth just for good measure, but some sensational fielding by the locals kept them from crossing the plate. With the bases full and none out Joe Byrne went in for the air for a hard hit liner from Fenley's bat and touched third before Pittenger, who had walked, could get back. Newman managed to get to third while Hagel was batting and then with Stewart, who was on first, tried to work the play. Hagel stole, Fenley threw to second to get Stewart, but Grodzick made a fine quick return to the plate, getting Newman.

Good Day For Outfielders.
The outfielders had a great day, eighteen putouts being registered by the keepers of the gardens. Manager Wenger of the Wolves, who had been seven to his credit, while Command had five. Pittenger played a nice game for London.

London threatened in the first inning when they got a man on third with only one out, but good fielding cut off the run. In the second inning, Hagel first up singled, and went to third when Friedman threw wild to second to catch him between the bases. Command singled, scoring Hagel, and then "Matty" Matteson, former Bay City catcher in the Southern Michigan League, drove one over second to score Command. Okrie sent one at Thomson, the big fellow could not field and was safe at first. The book was then employed and Campbell went to the mound, filling the bases. Then Pittenger singled to score two more runs. Newman bunted and Mitchell scored, but after that the Tecumseh's could not find Campbell's offerings, and went scoreless until the eighth.

Grodzick Hits a Triple.
Bay City scored once in the fourth when Grodzick drove one to right field fence for three bases after Briger was safe on Matteson's muff of his infield fly, and two more came in the sixth on two singles, a double and a sacrifice fly. In the seventh, Owens was safe on Hagel's error, stole second and scored on Byrne's double, and Byrne scored on Grodzick's hit.

HAYES' WILD PEG IN NINTH ENABLES LONDON TO WIN

"Flip" Reilly Allows Flint Only Three Hits on His First Appearance Here.

BY BERT B. PERRY.

The Tecumseh made it a victorious week by grabbing the last of the series with Flint Saturday afternoon by the score of 3 to 2. It was eight straight victories for Stewart's gang when Fenley crossed the plate in the ninth with the run that decided a fine pitching duel between Hayes and Reilly. Twenty-one hundred fans witnessed the battle, and their full money's worth. It was nine innings of baseball, and though hits were scarce and balls were in the air, the one complaint of a lack of interesting moments.

It was rather tough that Hayes himself should commit the faux pas that turned the decision against him. The bases had been tied from the third inning, with two counters each, and the way Reilly and Hayes were moving down the batters made it look as if extra innings would be necessary. Reilly didn't allow a hit after Fenley's double in the first inning until the eighth. After the third, Hayes was just as big a puzzle to Fenley as Fenley was to Reilly. Newman being the only Tecumseh who could solve his delivery.

Fenley was the first London batter up in the ninth. He took advantage of Fenley's generosity and went first on four balls. Hagel bunted to Hayes and the Flint pitcher tried to beat Fenley to second. The play was close, but Fenley was safe, and Hagel reposed on first. Command also played for Fenley, and laid a bunt down the third base line. Hayes fielded the ball quickly, but his peg to first was off, and Fenley scored. Fenley's way home with the deciding counter.

Both teams started with a run in the first inning. Fenley opened with a double to left and Malle advanced him to deep center, and though Mitchell speared the fly, Fenley easily scored. Fenley's out, in London's half, Mitchell beat out an infield hit and Pittenger sacrificed. Newman doubled to center, scoring Mitchell.

Flint Scores Again.
In the third Reilly committed a spell of wildness and Fenley got a couple of errors worked out of their hands. Fenley led a slow march from first base by Fenley and Hayes sacrificed. Fenley stepped a pitched ball from Fenley and Hayes sacrificed. Fenley stepped a pitched ball from Fenley and Hayes sacrificed. Fenley stepped a pitched ball from Fenley and Hayes sacrificed.

But Again London Evens Up.
The Tecumseh came right back in the third and tied the count. Reilly walked, but was forced at second on Mitchell's grounder. Pittenger was thrown out by Nichols. Mitchell going to second. Newman then came through with his second blow, a slapping single to left, which scored Mitchell. Newman had a great day with the stick, his hitting being responsible for the London victory. He made three hits and got a walk in four trips. Command was also there, having two safeties, one a double, and four trips to plate. Both players also pilfered a base.

Reilly Looks Good.
It was "Flip" Reilly's first appearance in the box here since the old Canadian League days, and despite the handicap of a bad knee, he showed his old-time form. He had a fine change of pace, which, mixed with his curves, had the Flint hitters guessing. In the fourth inning Manager Pierce of the Wolves, Fenley and Fenley drove at second base. Plue had three chances and booted two of them, both easy ground balls.
