President Declares That Vote Against Extension Should Not Affect Progress.

Conditions on the country roads depleted the attendance at the annual meeting of the Western Pair Association today. City members of the organization turned out in full force to the moon luncheon in the Tecumseh, and a considerable number of county members were present. Many of those prominent in the work of the association were kept out of the city by the snow, however. however.

President W. M. Cartahore, in welcoming the members, expressed his regret at this condition. He briefly reviewed the work of the year and pointed out that the new directorate must consider steps for the enlarge-ment of the present grounds, as the cost of a new site made that plan im-practicable. ## SPECIAL SERVICES IN AND ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCHES MARK THE BEGINNING

Ceremony of Blessing Ashes Performed At All the Catholic Churches This Morning-Fasting and Restrictions On Food To Be Practiced by Adherents Past 21 Years and

The beginning of Lent today was marked by special Ash Wednesday services in the Roman Catholic and Anglican churches of the city.

The ceremony of blessing the ashes was performed in all the Catholic churches in the morning and the distribution will be made this evening. Throughout the Lenten season services will be held Wednesday and Friday evenings. The service of the stations of the cross will be held each Friday.

Apart from the religious services, and there are abundant evenings. The service of the stations of the cross will be held each Friday.

Apart from the religious services, and there are abundant symptoms that we have not yet adapted ourselves to the new conditions. The summer of fasting ordains that only one full meal a day be taken, but does not forbid a small amount of food in the morning and in the evening, according to the approved custom of the locality. The same meal during the foremon of Holy Saturday. The law of abritance forbids the eating of flesh meat is allowed at the principal meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, except the Saturday of Ember Week and the foremon of Holy Saturday. The law of abstinence forbids the eating of flesh meat and of broth made of meat, but does not exclude use of eggs, milk and products of milk (namely, cheese and produc abolished.

The Lenten fast and abstinence cease at 12 o'clock noon on Holy Saturday.

Persons under 21 years of age, or those who have reached their 60th year are not bound by the law of fasting, and all persons in ill-health or engaged in hard labor or have any other legitimate excuse, may be dispensed from both the law of fast and of abstinence. The precept of abstinence obliges all who have completed their 7th year, and even those who have passed the age of 60. A person dispensed from abstinence is not thereby dispensed from fasting and vice versa, if he is allowed several needs a day, this does not mean that he need not keep the abstinence. In this, as in other cases, a dispensation obtained under false pretences is invalid.

Members of the church have been advised in instances of this nature to consult their pastor or confessor.

Pastors of the churches have been requested to preach during Lent the necessity of penance and the obligation of Christian mortification. They are also asked to provide special means whereby their people may advance in devotion and piety.

The practice of family prayer in common, and especially the recitation of the Rosary, is also urged.

Lenten Pastoral.

Bishop David Williams, in his Lenten pastoral to the Anglican churches of the Diocese of Huron, declares that Lent comes providentially to continue the moral and spiritual efforts of the forward movement.

The forward movement has been the necessity of penance and the realization of that ideal means the establishment of the kingdom of God pon earth. Does my life correspond to hat ideal? Am I living by that law of Christ? What does my life show?
