Revises Constitution and Western Members Show Strength-Winter Fair Removal Mooted.

The Dominion Shorthorn Breeders' Association met in their twenty-second annual meeting yesterday, with a large at-mittee got down to business late because the Conservative members were in caucus. When the bill was called to Chairman Guthrie read a short letter from Premier Whitney, contradicting a statement contained in the Hamilton Radial pamphlet that he had never replied to letters reproduced in the pamphlet.

Claude Macdonell suggested that George T. Blackstock, be heard on behalf of the Ontario Government.

"Is this the Mr. Blackstock," demanded R. G. Macpherson, "who in a recent speech in Toronto said that the average member of parliament could not speak two sentences without using oaths? And I think if this is the Mr. Blackstock he should make amends to the committee."

Mr. Blackstock got up, and denied absolutely that he had made any sweeping condemnation of members were present in unusually large numbers, and their individuality was impressed upon the meeting in no uncertain manner. At one time it looked as if a clash would disrupt the peace of the gathering.

Milking Shorthorns,

At the close of the day, shortly before adjournment, Dr. Hopkins of Ottawa, seconded by J. M. Gardhouse of Weston, moved a resolution that, as it is in the interest of the Shorthorn breed that efforts should be made to demonstrate to the farmers of Canada that the breed possesses valuable dual purpose capabilities, worth of perpetuation, the association should request the department of agriculture to supervise the keeping of resords of performances, that a committee draw up a standard for registration; and that the names of all cows and bulls qualifying under that standard be published in the Herd Book.
