very successful minstrel show

A very successful minstrel show was staged by the young ladies of the local freight office last evening. The song hits and jokes were well received by the large audience, which showed appreciation of the talent by numerous encores. An interpretative Hawaiian dance by Miss Gauvreau was well received. A specialty dance by the Misses N. Artkin and Abell was also one of the hits of the evening. A parody on the personalities of the male staff rendered by Miss L. Lawrence evoked shrieks of laughter. The show was staged under the direction of Miss Hilda May and H. J. McCue. Dancing concluded one of the most enjoyable entertainments given by the C.P.R. Recreation Club, this year.

NEW LIGHT SHED IN MURDER CASE

Evidence Now Given That Adosey Owed Hassan Several Hundred Dollars.

The fifth sitting of the jury that is investigating the death of Ramousch Hassan, the foreigner whose body was unearthed in the cellar of his home at 149 Wolseley street, over a month ago, was held last night at the morgue, with Dr. Geo. Graham presiding and Mr. F. Snyder appearing for the crown. It was expected that a verdict would be reached by the jury last night, but due to the fact that all the material witnesses are foreigners, the evidence, both pro and con, is accumulating very slowly, and so it was decided to hold the final sitting on Monday evening, May 31.

The first witness called was Bob Tony, of 69 Tecumseh street, a particular friend of the murdered man during the past eight years. He stated that he last saw Hassan on the Saturday night about two weeks previous to the date of the crime, now fixed as having occurred on March 4. At that time Hassan was at a little party he was staging at his home, and he appeared so worried that he (Bob Tony) had inquired what was the matter with him, receiving a reply he was staging at his home, and he appeared so worried that he (Bob Tony) had inquired what was the matter with him, receiving a reply that he was worrying about how to secure some money from Adosey, who owed Hassan money, and not the owed him about $453, which he wanted was conding to the fact that it was Adosey who owed him about $453, which he wanted to send to his wife in the old country. This was a new feature, as up to the time that this witness, and adoes a result of Adosey's statements was that Hassan owed him money, rather than that he lowed. Such a large amount to Hassan' Witness also statements with regard to the missing man, and with this object in view had collected six dollars from the witness and from other friends of the deceased.

The second witness called by the screen was Jim Alex of 159 Wolseley street, who had lived at the boarding house at the time the crime was committed. He was almost the last one of the house to know that Hassan was alive on the morning of March 4, for when he was leaving for work here.

Tom Bell's house, and not finding him on her arrival, had prepared her own of the money, if witness and ose the who was owed because Hassan money, and not the other may not the many, and not the other way around. The mencey, if witness' statement is true, was owed because Hassan had furnished a large sum of the house with which to fight his trial. This had been placed in Adosey's hands, and after he had won trefund to the fight his trial. This had been placed in Adosey's hands, and after he had won trefund to the discussion and corone Graham, due to the cause ha, actording to a statement credited to the witness of the house with the about of the fight had been placed in Adosey's hands, and after he had won the case he, according to a statement credited to the witness of the house many was all with regard to the missing and Corone Graham, due to the cause ha, according to a statement credited to the witness of the house missing and Corone Graham, due to the case he, a
