Clothing THAT WEARS

A collar that sags in the rear, a shoulder that draws or "puckers" around the sleeve, a coat-front that wrinkles badly after a few weeks' wear—these defects are as noticeable as conspicuous mis-fit of coat or trousers.

20th Century Suits are fitted with as much care as though each wearer stood in the factory watching the work. They are not fitted to YOU, of course, but they ARE fitted to a man of your size, weight and physical makeup. Fitted to a MAN, mind you, not merely to a "dummy."

And in addition to perfect fit, the smoothness and faultless "set" of every part is insured by the most painstaking tailoring.

SUPERB SUITS await your selection here, $16 to $27. Others made specially for us, $10 to $20.

SUPERIOR PAINLESS DENTISTRY!

"There is a world wide cry against the dentists that torture their patients. Those of strong physique submit and endure the agony. With a second class this is simply impossible, and thousands of teeth are neglected and lost even though the patients may be able to pay for our most skillful services. Then there is a third class who, after months of mental torture in anticipation, finally come into our hands, and, with nerves strung to a harmful point, pass through the ordeal, but at what a cost! We do not sufficiently consider the consequences of shock in the dental chair, yet undoubtedly many suffer for months and even years from injuries to the nervous system received while in our hands.

The greatest duty of our profession today is to discover and adopt a mode of painlessly performing our operations."

NOTE.—The above is an abstract from a paper read by an eminent dentist of New York City before a society of dentists in Philadelphia. The famous Hale Method of painless dentistry, for which we are sole agents for Canada is the best Method on earth.

BOOTS RATHER A BAD GIVE AWAY

Hearing of Prisoners Arrested on Suspicion of Theft From Camp at Drury Cove

Thomas Preece and James Hogan were arrested on Sunday by Detective Killen and Policeman Goshline on suspicion of stealing a suit case, clothing and other articles from a tent at Drury Cove. They were before Judge Ritchie in the police court this morning and pleaded not guilty.

Like the Sandall, Archer F. Manks and Lester Smith, whose tent they are charged with entering, gave evidence, identifying property found in the prisoners' possession.

Detective Killen told of the arrest and the finding of the goods in the possession of the prisoners.

Mr. Sandall told of having left everything intact on his visit to the tent on Monday last. On Wednesday he and the others, including G. Eldon Merritt, went out to break camp and found things generally topsy turvey. He described the manner in which the three lockers had been broken open and the things that were missing, all of which he identified as those in court. He told of reporting the matter to the police.

The following list of articles missing had been made up by him: A pair of lace boots, one quilt, one suit case, Flobert rifle, mirror, duster, soft felt hat, coat, tin cup, two bathing suits, pair of pyjamas, sweater, and rain coat.

In company with Detective Killen and Policeman Goshline he drove out yesterday when they located the two prisoners this side of Rookaway near the road side where they were camping. He recognized his boots, which were worn by Preece and asked him where he got them and the prisoner replied in Boston. He asked further "Have they rubber heels?" and the reply was "No." On the detective finding that the boots had rubber heels and were the property of Mr. Sandall, he and the prisoner were taken to the camp. Preece were Merritt's and the sweater belonged to Manks.

Preece volunteered that he had got them in Boston.

Preece here denied that he meant those he was wearing but others near by, and when the witness asserted that at that time none other was exposed to view Preece told him he lied. The value of all the things he had seen him.

Messrs. Manks and Smith gave evidence corroborating Mr. Sandall's. Sandall told how he recognized Preece as having been in the vicinity of the camp at Drury Cove on Labor Day or thereabouts. Mr. Smith, too, said that he had seen him.

Preece here stood up and said, "I don't think so."

Detective Killen said that Preece had said he found the articles in the woods in a bundle while rabbit shooting. Hogan asserted that he owned nothing but what he had on. At that point Preece had he told he had bought in a shop on the square and Hogan had pointed out Scribner as they passed it coming in. Hogan said while driving in that they came from Boston three weeks ago. Detective Killen said he had expected to have owners for a boat sail, jib, hatchet and hammer, found in the possession of the prisoners.

The case was adjourned till tomorrow morning when Mr. Merritt will give his evidence.

LIKELY END TODAY

Peters-Barbour Case in Circuit — Early Adjournment to Suit Juror

When the Circuit Court opened this morning Justice White said that Juror Kendall Hall had told him that it was of the utmost importance to him that the morning's session be not delayed after 11:30 o'clock. It was for the counsel to decide whether it would be convenient to adjourn at that time or not.

Mr. Hazen said that the evidence would probably be all in by that hour, and it would be a pity to adjourn if the case could be finished by 1 o'clock. But if the jurors wished it so, it would be satisfactory to him.

G. V. Barbour was then placed on the stand. A number of orders for hides were recognized by the witness as having passed through his hands. An entry in the books 100 hides on Dec. 10, caused considerable discussion, as there was no receipt to correspond with it. The witness said he was conducting the warehouse under the name of himself, and whatever profits accrued went to himself. He managed the warehouse entirely. If there was anybody indirectly interested it was the Geo. E. Barbour Co.

Mr. Barbour was cross-examined by Mr. Hazen, and re-examined by Mr. Teed.

Two other witnesses were examined, James MacLachlan and Benjamin Allan, employees of the defendant, who told what they knew of the warehouse transactions and the securing and talking of hides.

Mr. Teed made application to have the declaration amended. He wished to have it changed to meet the evidence concerning the warehouse receipts, which were made out to the Bank of Montreal. His honor allowed the right to enter a plea.

It was now a quarter to twelve, and to suit the wishes of Juror Hall, who said that his business would suffer if he did not keep an appointment at 1:30, the case was adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the counsel will make their addresses, and his honor also. It is expected that the case will go to the jury this afternoon.
