As a high court we were never so proud hitherto of being British and Canadian as we are today. It will be told to our children and our children's children how our sons and brothers of this generation went forth from the new world to chivalrously redress the balance of right and wrong in the old.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

GLOE RIDGLEY, OPERA HOUSE TOMORROW

Standing on the slippery top of a stage coach, driving four horses with one hand and laying both wrists against the other, being buried under a landslide and going through them all uninjured, only to be ignominiously bucked off a horse and having both wrists sprained were a few of the accidents that befell beautiful Gloe Ridgley, Laskey star, who will be seen in the Opera House tomorrow.

The Jesse L. Laskey production of "The Love Mask" Miss Ridgley, who is an actress of unusual power, passes through other mishaps so many that she failed to give sufficient consideration to a piece of paper which blew under her horse's feet in returning to the studio.

One quick jump and small heels followed a blonde tumbled head over the horse's neck into a patch of weeds. For two days the taking of the picture was delayed until the swelling in the wrists decreased sufficiently for Miss Ridgley to use her hands again.

"The Love Mask" is a western drama and has scored quite a success in all the large cities.

SPLENDID NEW SHOW TOMORROW

"A Corner in Cotton" at Imperial Theatre tonight adds one other variety of pictorial production to the very many already enjoyed by patrons of this house.

That pleasant personality, Marguerite Snow, plays the heroine, the daughter of a grasping old Wall Street stockbroker, who seeks to corner the market and incidentally crush his daughter's sweetheart.

However, by the aid of her own 500 shares and a high-powered motor car the girl thwarts her grasping parent and all ends well. The Metro picture was photographed in the south shows some interesting views of the cotton fields and the auto roads of that territory, has hundreds of pretty children in its remarkable scenes and altogether a cheery bit of exciting drama with brilliant flashes of wit here and there.

Frank Daniels will play in another "Mr. Jack" comedy in which he gets tangled up with a "well-lover" in a barrel and in order to escape the consequent complications essays the role of a medical doctor. The Animated Weekly will complete the bill.

WINS PRAISE FOR GETTING GILLETTE

When it was announced that William Gillette would appear before the camera in film versions of his great stage successes "Sherlock Holmes" and "Secret Service," critics everywhere congratulated the movie folk on obtaining his services. They all expressed surprise that these two classics of the stage had not been filmed before. As a matter of fact, Mr. Gillette received serious offers to appear in pictures, but refused them all until he was persuaded to accept by George K. Spoor, "Sherlock Holmes" at Imperial next week.

KEEP FRIDAY OR SATURDAY FREE FOR THIS

"The Flying Torpedo" will create a sensation in Bridgeport on next Saturday and the 19th. Only two other pictures ever made equal it. One is the "Birth of a Nation" and the other is "The Birth of a Nation" in conception, startling in the effects produced, gripping in intensity of interest. It is a tale of war and need preparation. The scenes are stupendous and awe-inspiring.

STRIKING PICTURE FOR MID-WEEK AT GEM

"The Apaches of Paris," at the Gem tonight and Thursday is a melo-dramatic tale of the kind we all like once in a while. It is romantic in the Paris underworld. A startling drama of a kind seldom seen outside the haunts of these people of the lower strata, is a feature. Also pictures of recent news events and a big chapter in "The Strange Case of Mary Page." That's a programme hard to beat.

DR. WHITE REPLIES TO CRITICISM OF SPEECH RE HOSPITAL (Continued from page 1.)

MANY MOOSE. Woodsmen report seeing many cow moose, a larger number in proportion to males than usual. The animals are very plentiful. On a recent morning High Sheriff John O'Brien of Northumberland was awakened by the noise that came from a yard adjoining his house. In fact everybody was aroused and the household turned out to see what the trouble was. Then the visitors decamped.

MAJOR FISHER IN CITY. Major C. M. P. Fisher of the 98th Battery, now encamped at Petewawa, arrived in the city today to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fisher. Major Fisher, in speaking of the Petewawa Camp, said that there were more men there this year than ever before, and that things were running very smoothly. Without a doubt it was a fine camp.

The war, however, carries with it lessons—the great lesson, the lesson of preparedness, as our high chief ranger fittingly points out, and therefore more and more time has now come when steps should be taken in the wisdom of those in places of authority, guided by the opinion of parliament, to frame and enact such plans as will place our people in a better position in the future to participate in the maintenance of peace and order throughout the world in co-operation with the empire generally than heretofore possible.

Their sacrifices express our unbounded admiration of the heroic sacrifice discharged and the keen sense of patriotic duty manifested by those thousands of independent frontiers who have answered the call of king and country, some of them never to return and we suggest that ultimately some organ steps be taken through a fitting memorial to commemorate in permanent form their sacrifices.
