FULL PENALTY FOR BEATING A HORSE

Fine of Fifty Dollars, or 3 Months in Jail—May Appeal.

Having been adjudged guilty of beating his horse when it was not in a fit condition to work, Fraser Johnson was given the maximum sentence by Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning and was ordered to pay a fine of $50 or go to jail for three months.

Police Constable Bette said that he went to Sandy Point road last evening and found a horse lying in the ditch. It bore bruises and was apparently in such a weakened condition that it could not get up.

Mrs. Clara Marshall of 166 Hawthorne avenue, testified that she saw the defendant driving along the road yesterday between 4 and 4 o'clock. She said he was beating the horse unmercifully with a whip, and she had heard others telling him to stop. In answer to a question by the defendant she said she saw him hit the horse repeatedly, and that she was informed there was a ton and a half of coal in the wagon.

Her son, James Marshall, said he saw the defendant drive along and saw him repeatedly hitting the horse with a whip. He saw the lash snap off the whip and said the horse was hit the horse over the head with the butt. He followed the team for some distance and saw the horse fall in the ditch. He said it lay there from 5 o'clock until 9 o'clock.

Detective Biddescombe told of going to the scene last evening and finding the horse in the ditch. He said it had bruises on it, some old and some fresh. He did not consider it was in a fit condition to be worked.

The defendant when asked to explain his action said that he had some trouble with the horse, as it refused to haul the load up the hills. He confessed striking it with a whip, but denied cruelty.

Magistrate Henderson asked him if he had any witnesses, and when he said he had not, he was informed that he was found guilty of cruelty to a horse, which is one of the best friends a man has.

The magistrate said the testimony showed that the horse was not in a fit condition to work, let alone to be abused. He said the maximum fine was $50 and he would impose it, and in event of it not being paid the defendant would have to go to jail for three months.

The defendant said he would appeal the case.

S. M. Wetmore, Secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty, prosecuted the case. He paid a tribute to the work of the police officials and also to the witnesses, who had put themselves out to put a stop to cruelty to dumb animals.

HALE AND HEARTY AT EIGHTY YEARS

Lives on Farm His Grandfather Cleared—Happy Birthday Party.

A party in honor of the 80th anniversary of Edward J. Neal of Newville, parish of Westfield, better known as Greenwich Hill, was held on Monday. Mr. Neal, who has lived all his life on the farm that village which was cleared originally by his great-grandfather, is still hale and hearty, and can relate many interesting stories of wood-boating on the St. John river.

He is still able to do his own work on the farm, with a little help in getting in his hay. All his faculties are still bright and he can read the paper without the aid of glasses.

A large birthday cake, handsomely decorated with 80 candles, was placed on one of the tables, which were tastefully decorated with cut flowers for the occasion. A bountiful repast had been prepared by the friends of Mr. Neal, who arranged the affair, and a social evening was enjoyed. A purse containing $35 was presented Mr. Neal by Charles Pitt, on behalf of those present.

Mr. Neal's wife, formerly Miss Ada Williams of Long Reach, is also living on the farm.

Among those present were Amos Neal, son of the host; Stanley Neal, a grandson; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Neal and Miss Eulah Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Yennings Neal, Mrs. Walter Neal and family, Miss Olivia Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pitt and William Neal. Those present from the city were Mrs. E. C. Williams, Hiram Williams, Mrs. Walter Gregg and Master Purdy Gregg, Mrs. Bayard Stillwell and family, Mrs. James W. Mowry and family, Herbert Mowry, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Williams and Mrs. George Williams of Fairville.

BURGLAR GOT AWAY BUT EMPTY HANDED

The East St. John post office, located in the store of the assistant postmaster, W. B. Parkinson, at the corner of Mount Pleasant street and the Red Head Road, was broken into between midnight last night and 2 o'clock this morning and a suit of clothes belonging to Mr. Parkinson was taken. The suit, however, was later found in Mount Pleasant street and returned to its owner. Mr. Parkinson, who sleeps in the building, was awakened by the burglar, who entered by forcing a window. He arose and found the miscreant in a room in the back of the store and gave chase. In the darkness, however, the burglar escaped through a back door, which was latched on the inside, and got away without being identified. The matter has been reported to the police.

LOCAL NEWS

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.
Friends of Mrs. Harry Palmer will regret to learn that her illness has taken a serious turn and that she was removed to hospital last week.

TO PROVINCIAL HOSPITAL.
A man who recently appeared in the police court on a charge of using abusive and threatening language was taken to the Provincial Hospital yesterday by Sergeant Ralph Dykeman, as he had been examined by a doctor and pronounced mentally deficient.

FUNERALS TOMORROW.
The funeral of Miss Elizabeth McCarron, who died yesterday in the Mater Misericordiae Home, will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the Home to St. Peter's church, where requiem high mass will be celebrated, after which the body will be taken to Chapel Grove for interment. Miss McCarron was formerly a resident of Centerville and was one of the best known and most popular members of that community. She is survived by a large number of nephews and nieces. Many friends will regret to learn of her death.

The funeral of Michael Lydon, whose death occurred in the Mater Misericordiae Home on Wednesday, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from O'Neill's undertaking parlour, 100 Main street, to St. Peter's church, where services will be conducted. Interment will take place in Holy Cross cemetery. His son Joseph arrived on the city today on the Boston train from Millinocket, Me., to attend the funeral.

KEEN INTEREST IN NEWSIES' PICNIC

In Case of Wet Weather, Event Will Be Held in Armory.

Not one jarring note has entered into the preparations for the gala day for the newsies of St. John, which will take place tomorrow on the Bishop's grounds at Torryburn, and the anticipation in the minds of all the boys now is that the day will be a happy one. Every effort is being made by the committee handling the affair to make the day complete in all particulars.

The annual house of the city have been generous in coming forward and offering a large variety of prizes which will be competed for in the list of events—athletic and otherwise—which have been arranged for the boys. An attendance of about 400 is being provided for, and it is almost certain that there will be 400 competitors in the events.

Arrangements were made yesterday to carry out the programme in the Armory in the city in the event of wet weather interfering with the outdoor plans. Of course, the picnic idea was the more popular with the kiddies, but the committee has decided that—rain or shine—the event will come off on Saturday, either at Torryburn or in the city.

A committee went out to the Torryburn grounds this morning to further arrangements for all that is necessary to ensure the success of the undertaking. The place for the sports was selected, plans for serving the dinner completed, and other matters attended to. Another committee will go out tomorrow to have all ready to receive the happy throng.

HOME AFTER TOUR OF OLD COUNTRY

John Jackson Tells of Visit to England, Ireland and Scotland.

John Jackson arrived home yesterday after an extended tour of England, Ireland and Scotland. He left here early in April and sailed for England on the Canadian Pacific steamship Montclare. After spending a week in Liverpool he journeyed to London, where he remained five weeks. While there he had the pleasure of meeting Hilton Belyea, who was in training for the Diamond Sculls and the Olympics, and watched him and scores of others perform in their shells on the Thames.

He said that he saw as many as 50 or 60 scullers working on the Thames at one time, and the sight was an inspiring one. He also attended the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley and said he had the pleasure of seeing the Canadian exhibit, which is eulogized by everyone who visits it. Mr. Jackson says it is a credit to Canada and the men who put it there. The crowds that attend the exhibition are so large that, he said, one finds it hard to get around.

While in London Mr. Jackson attended several great organ recitals, heard astounding radio programmes and attended many feature events. After his five weeks' stay there, he left for Lincolnshire, his native town, where he had the pleasure of once again visiting the haunts of his boyhood days. While there he also met two boyhood chums, John Thorby and William Dickinson, and had the pleasure of recounting his experiences since he left home in 1872 for Canada. He visited the Grantham Fair and spent some time around the Fen Lands, and thoroughly enjoyed the visit.

In Ireland.

He then left for Ireland, which he says is the most beautiful country he visited. He said its present state is pathetic, and he told of seeing many magnificent buildings which had been wrecked during the troubled times in the Emerald Isle. He said he considers Dublin one of the finest laid out cities he was ever in, and told of the wide streets with their wealth of striking architecture. He intended spending some time in Queenstown and learned that its name has been changed and is now known as Cobh. In Ireland he visited many beautiful old abbeys and castles.

He also spent some time in Scotland and told of his visits to the large shipbuilding yards along the Clyde. In Glasgow he took in all the places of interest, which included castles and other relics of the past which still stand in all their grandeur. Both going and returning across the Atlantic favorable weather conditions were enjoyed, and during the entire journey Mr. Jackson says he never missed a meal. He has a diary of his visit every day, and has carefully noted every interesting event which transpired since the day he left St. John until he returned home.

EIGHTY NOW WORK AT THE NEW HOTEL

Contractors are Going Deeper Than First Planned, for Foundation.

The work at the Admiral Beatty Hotel is two or three days behind schedule owing to depression in the rock formation on the east side which has necessitated that the contractors delve much deeper for their foundations. The contractors expect to make up this delay within the next couple of weeks. The depression was discovered between the high rock pile on the west and the edge of the Imperial theatre site. However, the extra depth for the foundations is the only change that will make in the plans. Additional carpenters were taken on this morning and in all, there are about 80 men employed on the work at present and an official in charge declared today that he expected this number would exceed 100 by the latter part of next week. F. Neil, local architect, has been looking after the interests of the Imperial theatre in connection with the lining of the boundary between the two sites.

FINED FOR DRUNKENNESS.

One man pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness in the police court this morning and was fined $8 or two months in jail.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter, "I'm some kickin' about what our farmers in New Brunswick are put up with, but I guess I don't want to change places with them there wheat farmers out west—after all."

"It is a great thing to be content with what you have," said the reporter.

"It's a greater thing," said Hiram, "not to hev to figure on a frost or a hail storm wipin' out a hull season's work. Me an' Hanner was readin' about it las' night an' we felt sorry fer them farmers that was hit so hard in Manitoba—just when they all thought they was goin' to hev a great crop. Then there's the farmers in Saskatchewan an' Alberta—some of 'em hev'n their crop burnt up by the drooth. It don't help the fellows that was hard hit for them in the next county to hev plenty. No, sir—I aint hankerin' after any such experience. Give me old New Brunswick every time—even if I don't never get rich. There's a lot o' things besides money—By Hen!"

PAINT IN THE FALL

If you have any building that needs painting, now is the best time to do it, because at no other time of the year are wood surfaces in better condition to receive paint, for the summer sun has dried it thoroughly; another thing, rough winter weather is coming along and your property should be protected with a good coat of paint.
